On Sunday morning (10/14/18), officers from the College Place Police Department responded to an alarm located at Graphic Apparel on Rose Street. Upon arrival, officers discovered a broken window and open door. Officers made entry and cleared the building. No suspects were located. Officers believe the alarm scared the suspects away, and it did not appear any items were taken.

While officers were investigating the burglary, Walla Walla Communications notified of an attempted residential burglary next door to Graphic Apparel. Officers quickly responded to the residence where they discovered an open door to a garage. No suspects were located, but officers believe the incidents are connected.

If you have any information in regards to the burglaries please call or contact the College Place Police Department, 509-394-8550.
