Cumberland Town Council
Resolution 2016-1

Resolution Authorizing the Disposal of Unclaimed Bicycles to the Department of Corrections

Whereas, the Cumberland Police Department, from time to time, receives bicycles which are lost or abandoned; and Whereas, the Cumberland Police Department stores and retains these bicycles so that a true owner may claim the bicycles and have it returned to their possession; and Whereas, the Cumberland Police Department has bicycles which are unclaimed by a true owner; and
Whereas, the Cumberland Police Department wishes to donate the unclaimed bicycles to Department of Corrections to aid the Department’s charitable efforts to donate bicycles to other organizations such as Riley Hospital; and Whereas, the Cumberland Town Council finds that it is in the best interest of the Town of Cumberland to allow the Police Department to donate unclaimed bicycles to the Department of Corrections.
It is therefore resolved that the Cumberland Police Department is authorized to donate unclaimed bicycles to the Department of Corrections to aid that department’s charitable efforts.
