- The County has had several unreconciled accounts, an outside accounting firm was hired to complete the reconciled accounts, in doing so, 1.2 million dollars in funds has been accounted for.
- Resolution was recently passed for an additional $20,000 for college tuition. The vote was 12 yes and 3 no.
- The Ceremonial Tree Tapping was recently held at Cooperative Extension.
- An offer has been made to an individual for the position of Risk Manager for the County. Hopefully, the candidate will accept and be starting soon.
- Mr. Denesha, along with Don Chambers, recently met with Kenneth Blankenbush, to discuss Highway Department’s wish list for the upcoming year. Later in the week, they will be meeting with Addie Jenne to discuss plans as well.
- Passed resolution to authorize hiring for the Chief Assistant DA, as well as, filling two empty Assistant DA positions.
- Properties with environmental issues; hoping to be signing agreements soon to have the State complete environmental cleaning of the sites. There are 4 properties being looked at in the County that the taxes are in arrears and have been for some time. There are 2 properties in Massena, 1 in Gouverneur and 1 in Morristown. The County has not taken procession due to the expense of the environmental clean-up. Once the clean-ups are completed, the County will be able to sell them and keep 50% of the revenue from the sales, as well as, return the properties to the tax roll.
- The J&L site, in the Town of Clifton, has received another $500,000 from Restore New York for further clean-up of the site.
- The County Clerk’s office will be accepting credit/debit card payments at the office for various fees paid to the County.
- As of April 16th, the New York State Troopers will no longer be dispatching out of the Safety Building in Canton. They will continue to maintain offices, but will not be dispatching, as this will now be done through Clinton County, as part of the sharing of services initiative for New York State.
- The County’s Finance Committee will be presenting a resolution March 6th, to recognize the Harold Lowery Family, for the Century Farm Award. A congratulations to the Lowery Family, as it’s quite an honor to be working a family farm for such a long time.
- Steve Button, the attorney for the County will be attending the upcoming St. Lawrence County Town Supervisor’s meeting, on February 28th at Sergis in Potsdam.

Communications:
-St. Henry update – need to have hazardous material testing completed for possible asbestos abatement. A quote of $3,335.00 has been received from Adirondack Operations.

Rae Ann Davis motioned to accept the quote for hazardous material, seconded by Michael Livingston. Carried 5 Ayes

-Supervisor Frary shared a recent energy report from Anka.
-Supervisor Frary also shared some basic information he has received from UBMax Systems which provides software for water and sewer billing. He would like the Clerk to review the information, as well as have the opportunity to ask questions regarding the software. A good feature of UBMax is it is able to provide service to a small municipality.

Harold Lowery, motioned for Supervisor Frary, and Clerk Creazzo, to continue exploring UBMax Systems for information, and if found to be what we need; then proceed with purchasing the program, seconded by Rae Ann Davis. Carried 5 Ayes

-Supervisor Frary read Historian, Bryan Thompson’s, Annual Report. Highlights of the report include:
-Listings of presentations to local schools, including St. Lawrence University, which he presented a SOAR class on the Civil War Letters of John Whippel. He also gave presentations to the local AARP and Canton ZONTA Club on Helen Hinsdale Rich.
-Arranged for the scanning, duplication, and publishing on the town Historian’s Web page of the 1917 Militia roster for the Town of DeKalb. Others items added to the Website include indexes of the 1879 Richville Baptist Church Membership Roster, the Enrollment for Those Liable for Military Service in the town for 1862, as well as, 3 Volumes of DeKalb Chattel Mortgages.
-While regular office hours are kept, Mr. Thompson writes, “The website continues to be the way most people contact the Town Historian’s Office”.
- Mr. Thompson, with the assistance of Linda Batt, edited “A De Kalb Historical Reader”, a history of the Town, consisting of articles that have previously been published in the Williamstown Gazette. The book was self-published for the DeKalb Historical Society. This was Mr. Thompson’s first experience with E publishing and he reports, “it was quite a learning experience”. It is noted, the expectation was that it might take 4 or 5 years of book sales to pay for the publication. To date, all cost of the publishing has been paid. Moving forward, sales will now be realized as profit to the DeKalb Historical Society.
-Mr. Thompson looks forward to serving the Town in 2017.

Supervisor Frary notes the Town of DeKalb, is very fortunate to have Bryan who does an outstanding job as historian.

-Supervisor Frary shared with the Board, information from Assessor’s Manual, Volume 4, Exemption Administration, Part 1. This pertains to Solar Energy and exemptions.

-Supervisor Frary also shared with the Board, the DeKalb-Hermon Senior Citizens financial Report for 2016.

-Supervisor Frary has received copies of the contract between Gouverneur Volunteer Rescue Squad, INC. and the Town of DeKalb for 2017 Ambulance Services. All copies will be signed, notarized, and two will be returned to the squad, as payment was approved during an earlier meeting.

NYS Comptroller Audit:
Members of the Board were given copies of the Town of DeKalb Financial Management Report of Examination for the Period Covered: January 1, 2015 – June 30, 2016. They also received a copy of Supervisor Frary’s written response and reviewed, as well as made comments to the reports. Supervisor Frary will make changes as suggested and remit to the Comptroller’s Office for review.

A motion was made by Harold Lowery and seconded by Ed Newcombe to approve payment of the bills as entered on Abstract # 2-2017 Carried 5 Ayes
A motion was made by Michael Livingston and seconded by Rae Ann Davis to adjourn. Carried 5 Ayes
