5. MEET AND GREET EVENT ON MEMORIAL DAY

Member Flanagan reported that she discussed the event with the Village Manager, who supports the event as proposed by the Forum.

Chairperson Wood will follow up to clarify the details and logistics of the event, which will immediately follow the parade. The goal is to introduce newly hired staff to the community, specifically Village Manager Phil Kiraly, Director of Public Safety Cary Lewandowski, Park District Executive Director Lisa Sheppard, and Library Executive Director Juli Janovicz. Further details will be discussed at the next Forum meeting – food and beverage sponsors, location, etc.

6. FOURTH OF JULY

This item was tabled until the next meeting for further discussion.

7. OTHER BUSINESS

Discussion ensued regarding the purpose and function of the Forum.

Members reviewed the Purpose and Function document, as posted on the Village website, as well as the applicable Village Ordinance, Chapter 10A, Article II, Human Relations. Member Pearce led a discussion geared to identifying the scope and impact of the Forum, while working within the parameters as defined by ordinance. The group shared ideas for aligning the Forum. In the end, members agreed that the immediate mission of the Forum is to ‘foster Human Relations Forum awareness and cultivate community unity and respect by bringing people together; and when needed, helping to resolve issues and disputes’. Success will be defined by the Forum’s ability to have a positive impact on the Glencoe community. Future discussions will address specific goals and methods for achieving success in the defined mission.

8. ADJOURNMENT

Meeting adjourned at 8:20 p.m. - Motion by Member Flanagan, Second by Member Pearce, all in favor.

Next Meeting: Scheduled for Wednesday May 21, 2014 at 6:30 p.m.
