

Office of the Mayor

Proclamation

WHEREAS, today we celebrate Chazz Middlebrook's achievement in securing the rank of top rusher in NCAA Division III national rankings, finishing the 2016 season with 1,703 yards on 242 carries, averaging seven yards per carry and having led his team to several victories rushing in 18 touchdowns; and

WHEREAS, he was also named Upper Midwest Athletics Conference Most Valuable Offensive Player, 1st Team All-Conference and Player of the Week three times in one season; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Middlebrook has not only proven himself on the field, but, in combining his great work ethic and positive attitude with his determination and drive for success, he has also proven himself in the classroom and within his community,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ANDY EZARD, Mayor of the City of Jacksonville, Illinois, do hereby proclaim April 6, 2017 as Chazz Middlebrook Day in the City of Jacksonville and encourage our citizens and the MacMurray campus community to join in extending recognition and congratulations to Mr. Middlebrook for his superior performance and the honor he brings his coaches, his school and his community.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Official Seal of the City of Jacksonville to be affixed this 6th day of April 2017.
