IN THE MATTER OF REVIEW/APPEAL _________________ PROPERTY ACCOUNT NO: _______________

PROPERTY OWNER: ___________________________________________ VALUATION YEAR__________

SALES INFORMATION IS NOT PUBLIC INFORMATION

However, per Wyoming State Statute 34-1-143 (g) property owners may access sales information used to determine the Fair Market Value of their property during the 30 day appeal period.

(g) Any person or his agent who wishes to review his property tax assessment or who contests his property tax assessment or valuation in a timely manner pursuant to W.S. 39-13-109(b)(i) is entitled to review statements of consideration for properties of like use and geographic area available to the county assessor in determining the value of the property at issue as provided under W.S. 39-13-109(b)(i). During a review, the county assessor shall disclose information sufficient to permit identification of the real estate parcels used by the county assessor in determining the value of the property at issue and provide the person or his agent papers of all information, including statements of consideration, the assessor relied upon in determining the property value and including statements of consideration for properties of like use and geographic area which were available to the assessor and are requested by the person or his agent. The county assessor and the contestant shall disclose those statements of consideration to the county board of equalization in conjunction with any hearing before the board with respect to the value or assessment of that property. As used in W.S. 34-1-142 through 34-1-144:

(i) A "review" is considered the initial meetings between the taxpayer and the county assessor's office;

(ii) "Contest" means the filing of a formal appeal pursuant to W.S. 39-13-109(b)(i).
