LCHEC PRESENTS 4th ANNUAL COLLEGE FOR KIDS PROGRAM

Lampasas, Texas – The Lampasas County Higher Education Center (LCHEC) will be hosting their fourth annual College for Kids program for Summer 2017. The College for Kids program presents a variety of fun, entertaining, and educational classes for children looking to get more out of their summer vacation.

Courses for the Summer 2017 program include American Red Cross Basic Aid Training, American Red Cross Babysitter's Boot Camp, Exploring Owl Pellets, Junior Firefighters Academy, Junior Police Academy, Junior Paleontology: Dino Dig, Digital Photography for Kids, Miniature Gnome Garden, Recycled Bird Feeders, Nuts for Needlepoint, Knitting with Kitty, and "Fun Under the Sea" Art Class. Course costs range from $15 to $45 and are made affordable and possible by our generous sponsors Mr. Tommy Fogle, Lampasas Lions Club, and Lampasas Builders Mart Inc., Ace Hardware. Additional information such as age requirements, course descriptions, and date/time are available online at www.lchec.net.

Parents or guardians interested in enrolling their child/children can call 512-556-8226 or visit www.LCHEC.net or Facebook page for additional information on how to register. The Lampasas County Higher Education Center also welcomes interested parents to come visit our office Monday through Friday, 9 am – 5 pm, located at 208 East Avenue B in Lampasas.
