REPORT OF EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR:

A report from the Executive Director was presented:
Executive Director Shipley reported that the District received good news from Kyle Shell a Risk Management Consultant for the Insurance Program Managers Group. The workers compensation claims have gone down.

President Pennekamp asked if management is reporting back to the employees. And are the safety trainings helping to keep the claims down?

Superintendent Greathouse replied, “Yes, the Superintendents let the employees know that the workers compensation claims are down. I think the safety trainings help.”

Executive Director Shipley, “The Granite City Regional Sewage Treatment Board meeting is today at noon. The new rates will be addressed at the meeting. We plan to question why the District is responsible for such a large percentage of the Treatment Plant. I was not happy that I received an email with additional changes to the packet this morning. This does not give us time to review the changes before the noon meeting.”

Treasurer Ken Davis commented that several years ago, the District hired George Salwasser with Horner and Shifrin Engineering Firm to do a study for Metro East Sanitary District on wastewater flow, BOD’s and TSS charges. His report showed a different means of measurement than the Granite City Regional Treatment used at that time. His report saved the District a significant amount of money.

President Pennekamp, “We need to get a handle on this issue. I propose that the attendees ask questions and learn more about the methods used to determine the rates.”

Treasurer Ken Davis said that the District hired Terry Kelahan in the past to help with the Granite City Regional flow charges. We can also ask Phil Boyer who formerly worked at the Granite City Treatment plant for assistance.
