General Activity Unit #3 members enjoyed chair volleyball and chili lunch with residents of SEM Laurels. MCFD is pleased to have been awarded an Ohio Bureau of Workers' Compensation Safety Intervention Grant to purchase a new, commercial washer/extractor to clean firefighter PPE. This is a matching grant and MCFD will contribute a one-fourth share of the $16,511.10 project. MCFD and the Ohio BWC have collaborated on several projects in recent years to improve safety for Milford’s firefighters, EMT’s and paramedics. Power-assisted ambulance stretchers, firefighting PPE, consultation to improve workplace safety policies, and now this important equipment all promote a healthier, MCFD workplace. Firefighters from Union Township, Miami Township, and MCFD met to review equipment and capabilities of each community’s ladder truck. Thank you, Life Change Church for hosting this training in its parking lot. Congratulations to Firefighters Carley Eggmeyer and Anthony Smith for recognition received from
