DRC presents Historic District Educational Workshop
5:30 to 7:30 p.m., Wednesday, August 28
Myrtle Beach Train Depot, 851 Broadway Street

The Downtown Redevelopment Corporation hosts the Historic District Educational Workshop from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, August 28, at the Historic Myrtle Beach Train Depot, 851 Broadway Street. The South Carolina Department of Archives and History unanimously voted on Friday, July 26, 2019, in favor of putting Myrtle Beach’s Historic District on the nomination list for the National Register of Historic Places. The effort is part of the proposed Myrtle Beach Downtown Historic District. Preservation of the district and the properties within its boundaries will provide local recognition and protection of Myrtle Beach’s unique character. The Historic District nomination includes portions of Main Street, Oak Street, Broadway Street, North Kings Highway and Eighth and Ninth Avenues North. In total, 18 contributing buildings and eight non-contributing buildings are under review. Now approved, the Myrtle Beach Downtown Historic District continues the process necessary to achieve designation on the National Register of Historic Places. This allows contributing buildings to utilize State and Federal Tax Credits. Property owners in the Historic District and interested parties are invited to attend the workshop on Wednesday, August 28. Come learn what it means to be in a Historic District and about useful financial resources that may be available to help rehabilitate historic buildings. The event is an excellent opportunity to provide feedback about the positive changes happening in the downtown area. For more information, contact Lauren Clever at lclever@cityofmyrtlebeach.com.
