Public Meeting: Withers Swash Drainage Basin Stormwater Solutions
6:00 p.m., Tuesday, November 12
Myrtle Beach Train Depot, 851 Broadway Street

The city hosts a public meeting to discuss stormwater solutions in the Withers Swash drainage basin at 6:00 p.m. on Tuesday, November 12, at the Myrtle Beach Train Depot, 851 Broadway Street. WK Dickson, the city’s consultant, has been working on stormwater quality and quantity issues in the area, which includes 2,500 acres. The goal is to improve existing flow paths and structures, manage the quantity and improve the water quality. The effort has identified 16 treatment projects for better water quality and 18 infrastructure projects for better stormwater quantity management. The public will have a chance to review and comment on the summary and ask questions. This is a follow-up to a similar public input meeting held last year at this time, when the study was just getting under way. We hope to see you there!

Annual Dickens Christmas Show: “Shop with a Hero” Selfie Contest
Thursday through Sunday, November 14-17
Myrtle Beach Convention Center, 2101 North Oak Street

The Myrtle Beach Police Department and Fire Department’s “Shop with a Hero” Selfie Contest returns for the 38th Annual Dickens Christmas Show, November 14-17, at the Myrtle Beach Convention Center, 2101 North Oak Street. Attend the show and help local children by participating in the “Shop with a Hero” Selfie Contest! Just take a “selfie” with a Victorian-dressed fireman or Victorian-dressed policeman. Then, post the photo on the Myrtle Beach Fire Department’s Facebook page (www.facebook.com/MYRTLEBEACHFIRE) or the Myrtle Beach Police Department’s Facebook page (www.facebook.com/myrtlebeachpolice). If you post your selfie on both Facebook pages, you’ll have two chances to win! One winner will be selected for a free dinner for eight individuals at Sticky Fingers Restaurant. In addition, the department (Police or Fire) with the most selfie posts will be declared the winner, receiving a trophy and a check to help fund the Shop with a Hero program.

2019 Dickens Christmas Show Hours
9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., Thursday, November 14
9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m., Friday, November 15
9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m., Saturday, November 16
12:00 to 6:00 p.m., Sunday, November 17

So, what is the “Shop with a Hero” program? Each December, the Myrtle Beach police and fire personnel serve as Santa’s Helpers, granting children in need a day of holiday shopping for themselves and loved ones. The departments raise enough money to provide each child with at least $200 to spend on clothing, gifts and toys for themselves and their family members. The annual excursion is as much fun for the Police and Fire Department elves as it is for the youngsters. For more information about the Shop with a Hero program, call 843-918-1800. For more about the Dickens Show, see www.dickenschristmasshow.com.

About “SC Codes” effort... SC Codes was developed to build an increasingly diverse technology talent pipeline to support SC industry. Working with partners around the state, the mission is to ensure that any interested student has access to this platform. The goal is to prepare more South Carolinians for jobs in the technology industry by making it easy to access curriculum, training, mentors, events and job postings. A ready workforce means more opportunity, stronger communities and an attractive economy. SC Codes offers coding courses and mentorship opportunities to anyone who wants access to technology education. Online courses can be completed at your own pace, in your own home -- regardless of your technological background. Resources are available for students brand-new to coding, as well as for professional developers looking to add a new skill. SC Codes also will connect you with experienced programming mentors in your area who can offer guidance and support in-person or online. And it’s all free of charge. From your first coding lesson to your career path, SC Codes is here to help you get where you want to be. For more information, please visit https://www.sccodes.org/.
