Information & Discussion:

A) SVFD monthly report: No representative present to report, volunteers have been busy dealing with Covid crisis. First Selectman Don Lowe took the opportunity to discuss precautions Sherman is taking to curb outbreak in town. Those traveling for hot spots are to self-quarantine for 14 days, curbside shopping is now being provided to town members. Town constituents are also encouraged to check town website for daily updates and to follow suggested protocol instituted by state and local municipalities, such as social distancing, washing hands regularly and often, and staying home. Also noted, it has been a struggle to find/get protective gear.

B) Budget Workshop: Liz LaVia stated that the Board last left off needing discussion about the capital plan and also animal control. Sherman has decided that the Animal Control budget would stay even without the contribution of New Fairfield who elected to leave the regional animal control. The budgetary figure would stay at $28,555. Treasurer Eric Holub made adjustments on revenue to remove pre-school tuition that isn’t to be paid because of Covid 19, BOE asked that tuition be free for Sherman residents. Another point of discussion was the inclusion of the Health Department job description for their proposed addition of a scanning clerk, this item will be remaining in new budget expenses. The part time P&R recommended position will also stay in current budget expenses. Current mill rate is proposed at 19.179%, a 3.2% decrease.

Capital Plan: A review of the proposed Capital Plan showed the following requests: Public works-replace International truck about $200,000, purchase of Kubota tractor for $15,000, approved funding of the SVFD tanker replacement for $228,486. Park/Rec-boardwalk section for $45,000, stair climber $5800, dog park fence at $15,000, regrade upper Veteran’s Field (to be determined, guestimate at $75,000). Miscellaneous items include MTH business office renovation and upgrade of existing space at $12,000. Bridges under 20ft. requiring state mandated evaluations at $15,000. Selectman Bob Ostrosky voiced opinion that he does not necessarily endorse all items suggested. First Selectman Don Lowe in turn responded that these items are a wish list and items that potentially needed. In total for budget on town side $4,866,283 and BOE $9,380,589, total combined proposal of $14,246,872, balanced budget again with a 3.2% decrease in mill rate.

C) Virtual Pre-School: All selectman agreed to waive the remaining Pre-K tuition as a result of Covid 19.
