Parkside Residents Invited to Fill Vacant ACC Board Seat

May 15, 2023, Anthem, AZ – Anthem Community Council is notifying residents of a vacancy on the ACC Board of Directors. This appointed position representing Parkside will complete the 2021-24 term vacated by Director Chilesa Ready in April 2023.

Parkside residents interested in serving on the ACC Board of Directors are invited to learn more online and complete the electronic Board Vacancy Statement of Interest by June 12, 2023 11:59 p.m.. Eligible candidates shall be a natural person of at least 18 years of age, owner of a residential lot, or a person residing in a residential lot with the owner who has the written consent of the owner to serve as a director. Apartment tenants or persons leasing and residing in a residential lot (except in the case of a non-owner director) are not eligible to serve as directors.

While the ACC Board of Directors is comprised of seven elected volunteer directors from the Anthem Country Club Community Association (3), Anthem Parkside Community Association (3), and The Village at Anthem Condominium Council of Co-owners (1), this vacancy must be filled by a representative from Parkside.

The Board Executive Committee will review the Statement of Interest forms prior to holding a Special Board meeting on June 21, 2023, 6:30 p.m. During this meeting, the Board will conduct candidate interviews followed by Board discussion and a vote.

The newly appointed director will participate in the June 28, 2023 ACC Board of Directors meeting.
