Historic Interpreters

Old Fort Western, built in 1754 and a National Historic Landmark, is Maine's and New England's oldest surviving wooden fort – a reminder of the great contest of cultures that dominated New England life 250 years ago. We are currently seeking intermittent part-time historical interpreters to deliver education programming to adult and youth audiences at the Fort and throughout Maine.

Responsibilities

Qualified candidates must enjoy working with the public, possess outstanding (speaking and listening) communications skills and have a sincere interest in history. Must have the ability to work in a variety of weather conditions. Moderate lifting and physical activities associated with 18th century manual work (ie. cooking over an open fire, hauling water, sawing and splitting wood, loading and firing muskets and cannons, etc.)

Hours

Seasonal (April – November). Hours will vary widely depending on scheduled programming.

Requirements

Qualified candidates will possess a high school diploma and a minimum of one (1) year or equivalent of college. Previous classroom teaching, training, or interpretive experience is a plus. A valid Maine Driver License is required.

Pay Scale

This is a Seasonal full-time, non-exempt, non-union position.
Pay range: $13.84

Open Until Filled.

To apply, please submit an application for employment or a resume with cover letter to Human Resources at hr@augustamaine.gov, or to 16 Cony Street, Augusta, Maine 04330.
