− There were no public comments.

III. Approval of Minutes

− The minutes from 16 February 2022 were approved as printed.

IV. Librarian’s Report

− The full-time staff participated in an intensive online self-paced training put on by NIMS, National Incident Management System. Departments around the city have been participating in the NIMS training. The new assistant to the city manager, Mike Smith, has been tasked with coordinating and scheduling trainings. The deadline for the city departments to finish training is March 1, 2022.
− In April 2022, book club will return to meeting in person.
− Meeting room rental is starting to pick up. Financial planners make good use of the meeting rooms.
− Benches were installed around the Library’s grounds. Five benches were installed in the front, one in the back. Plaques will be mounted on the benches.
− The Library Director discussed the current status of the security system. The system was experiencing some issues with displays and video feeds. A diagnostic test revealed that an energy module needed to be replaced. Once replaced, the system was working well again.
− The Friends of the Library will be meeting in March. The Friends of the Library have a new board.
− The Friends is planning an outdoor book sale during Berkley Days. There is a potential for a collection day in May or June 2022.
V. Old Business
