2. Discussion of Replacement for Cambiar as an Investment Manager

Reardon informed the board that Cambiar had continued to underperform and that after a review of the international space a change in managers was recommended. Reardon recommended switching to the American Funds Euro/Pacific Growth Fund. He stated the fund is run by 11 managers controlling over $100 billion in assets. The fund has lower fees, greater diversity of market exposure and 7 times more holdings than Cambiar. It has also outperformed Cambiar over the last decade. Reardon recommended replacing Cambiar with this fund and having the international portfolio split evenly between American Funds and Harding Loevner.

A motion was made by Maisonneuve and supported by Smith to move funds from Cambiar to American Funds as recommended.
