Little Zion Baptist Church 190th Anniversary
October 23, 2022
Town of Blythewood, South Carolina

WHEREAS, Little Zion Baptist Church is commemorating its 190th church anniversary on October, 23rd, 2022 and communities and churches from all over are sending congratulations in celebration of this remarkable church milestone; and

WHEREAS, in 1832, Little Zion Baptist Church is believed to have officially held its first meetings during the pre-Civil War days during the period of African enslavement in America; and

WHEREAS, in later years, the rich historical values continue to sustain with every new pastor that has come through Little Zion Baptist Church and the church continues to thrive and progress through its service to the community; and

WHEREAS, the church's current leader, Pastor Eddie W. Davis, was installed as pastor in 1983 and since then, many improvements and new members have been added; and

WHEREAS, today, Little Zion Baptist Church is a proud bearer of the traditions engaging in a variety of ministries and proclaiming mightily that good things do come out of Zion, where souls are saved, and discipleship is strengthened through service, and where lives are enriched through faith, prayer, study, and worship.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that I, Bryan Franklin, Mayor of the Town of Blythewood and the Town Council Members, on behalf of our community, proudly recognizes Little Zion Baptist Church's 190th Anniversary in Blythewood, South Carolina.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the official seal of the Town of Blythewood on this day, the 23rd Day of October, in the year of our Lord, 2022.

Bryan S. Franklin, Mayor
