Candidate Statement – Michael Brownrigg 8-8-2022

I’m Michael Brownrigg, your Vice Mayor, running to represent District 3 (Easton Addition). For 20 years I have proudly served the people of Burlingame, first on Planning Commission and then on City Council since 2009. I have helped Burlingame navigate two devastating economic crises – the Great Recession and now COVID – during which revenue fell by 25%+ but we kept city services humming, parks open, libraries thriving and even found ways to invest in water, sewers, sidewalks and our downtown. Today, we are creating new, more affordable housing on Rollins Road so we can remain an inclusive city. With our updated Bayside Plan, we will complete the Bayside Trail, expand recreational opportunities, and defend against rising sea levels; downtown we’re building 132 affordable apartments for seniors and working families, new offices, and a beautiful Town Square, cementing Burlingame as a great place to live, work, play and raise your kids. What’s next? First, keep quality of life high. Second, ensure we remain a diverse city, with great schools for all and plenty of housing options. Third, repair El Camino’s broken sidewalks and flooding, and lift the train tracks over Broadway, finally making that a safe intersection. I hope I can earn your vote.
