Candidate Statement

Rachel Cyr, Mother and Small-Business owner

My name is Rachel Cyr, and I am a 4th-generation resident of Burlingame and Hillsborough. I am an active member of the Burlingame community as a small business owner and activist. In 2014, I established my first brick-and-mortar business here: Rachel’s Cakes, which was beloved by many in the community. My experience as a business owner, including managing a budget and employees, would be an asset to our council. Through my business, I have supported such local organizations as the Burlingame Library Foundation, schools and the Burlingame Parents’ Club. I volunteer for Moms Demand Action and the Girl Scouts, and am on the board of UMC Preschool. I also advocate for many causes that I am passionate about; for example, I organize rallies in support of reproductive rights in July and August and created a youth coalition of activists on the Peninsula. I actively educate myself about anti-racism and strive for inclusivity in everything I do. As a mother of young children, I have the goal of creating the best possible Burlingame, focusing on safety for our children in schools, the environment, road safety, and creating a platform for parents to be heard. I look forward to serving our community.
