

Ann Erickson Gault Council Member

Contact Information:

Phone: 248.524.3500

ann.ericksongault@troymi.gov

Ann is a self-employed attorney and legal writer at Ann Erickson Gault PLC where she specializes in appeals and contract writing for other attorneys.

Ann is also of counsel to the firm Cohen, Lerner, and Rabinovitz, PC in Royal Oak, where she assists the firm with their business, personal injury, and family law cases.

Education

Manchester University, B.A., Political Science.

University of Toledo College of Law, J.D., cum laude.

Community Involvement

- Board member and Vice Chair of the Stoneridge Subdivision Homeowners Association, 2005 – present
- Team Captain, Voters Not Politicians, 2017
- Committee Member and Vice Chair of the Oakland County Bar Association's Providing Access to Legal Services committee, 2016-present
- Member of Women's Commission for Oakland County, 2008-2010
- Board Member, Women Lawyers Association of Michigan Foundation, 2014-present
- Past President, Women Lawyers Association of Michigan, 2008-2009

Personal Information

Ann and her husband Tom Gault moved to Troy in 2004.

Tom is a BOM Complexity Optimization Analyst at General Motors's Tech Center in Warren.

Their daughter Eleanor is a sophomore at Athens High School.