TROY POLICE INVESTIGATE A SHOOTING THAT OCCURRED SATURDAY EVENING

Troy Police are investigating a shooting that occurred at around 7:45 Saturday evening on Century Drive. The investigation is in the very early stages and only limited information is available for release at this time. The following information is based on initial reports from witnesses and involved parties.

The victim arrived home and was walking from his vehicle to his residence when he was confronted by the unknown suspect armed with a handgun. The suspect demanded valuables from the victim, who complied and threw items on the sidewalk. The victim then turned and ran and the suspect fired two rounds, striking the victim at least once. The victim fell to the ground and the suspect fled on foot.

Arriving officers and medical personal treated the victim's wounds and he was transported to an area hospital where he is expected to recover.

The suspect is described as a black male, 6 foot 2 inches tall, 220 pounds. He was last seen wearing all black clothing and some type of mask over his face.

Anyone with any information about this incident is asked to contact the Troy Police Department at 248.524.3477.
