UPDATE: Troy Police Arrest Armed Robbery Suspect

Troy, MI — The Troy Police Department has arrested Joseph Louis Carter (38) in connection with an armed robbery that occurred during the early morning hours of Thursday, October 30, 2025, at the Shell Gas Station, located at 6951 Rochester Road.

This outcome was made possible through the exceptional teamwork and dedication of our patrol officers, evidence technicians, detectives, Tactical Support Team, Directed Patrol Unit (DPU), and Special Investigations Unit (SIU). We are proud of the cohesive effort by our department members to identify, locate, and ultimately arrest Carter without incident.

We are also grateful to our community for their continued support, which ensures that we have the tools and resources necessary to do our jobs effectively.

The Troy Police Department extends its sincere appreciation to the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF), the Detroit Police Department, Ann Arbor Police Department, the Assistant United States Attorney's Office (AUSA), and the public for the valuable information and assistance that helped move this case forward.

Carter was charged with Armed Robbery, Felon in Possession of Firearm, and two counts of Felony Firearm 2nd Offense. He was arraigned at 52-4 District Court on November 10, 2025 and was denied bond.
