Troy Police Arrest Two Suspects in Liquor Store Break-In

The Troy Police Department has arrested two suspects connected to a break-in at the Bootleg Liquor Store, located at 4973 Livernois in Troy.

Jayvon Emmanuel Lindsley, 30, and Keith Emmanule Collins, 28, were taken into custody by members of the Troy Police Special Investigations Unit, which had been investigating a series of business break-ins in the metro area.

In the early morning hours of Sunday, October 12, 2025, investigators were in the area of Long Lake and Livernois, where they observed apparent signs of a break in at the store. The suspects fled the area and were later stopped on southbound I-75 near Rochester Road, where they were arrested. Evidence from the burglary was found inside their vehicle.

Lindsley and Collins were both arraigned in 52-4 District Court on October 13, 2025, and charged with Possession of Burglary Tools With Intent to Steal From a Structure, Breaking and Entering a Building With Intent, and Malicious Destruction of Building. Lindsley's bond was set at $150,000 and Collins' bond is $200,000.

Following their arrest, the Warren Police Department also issued charges against Lindsley and Collins for Breaking and Entering with Intent and Larceny. Investigators believe the suspects may be connected to additional break-ins in surrounding communities, and further charges may follow.

These arrests are the result of a focused and collaborative investigation and our Special Investigations Unit worked tirelessly to identify and apprehend these suspects who were targeting local businesses.

The Special Investigations Unit is a multi-jurisdictional task force made up of investigators from the Birmingham, Bloomfield Township, Royal Oak, and Troy Police Departments. The SIU works collaboratively to investigate criminal activity impacting the region.
