

Chief Troy Tomaras has been Chief of the College Place Police Department since March 2017.

Troy is a 25+ year veteran of the Washington State Patrol. Troy began his career with the WSP in 1991, graduating with the 74th Trooper Basic Class. During his career, Troy served a variety of duties to include Human Resource, Training Division, Homeland Security & SWAT. Troy promoted through the ranks and retired as a Lieutenant assigned to the Homeland Security Division where he managed security for the State Ferry system.

Troy earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Organizational Leadership from the University Of Charleston, West Virginia. Troy also earned an Associate's degree in Homeland Security and Emergency Management through Pierce College. Troy is a proud graduate of Northwestern University's, Center for Public Safety School of Police Staff and Command College.

Chief Tomaras is a member of the Washington Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs (WASPC) and serves on the Homeland Security & Intelligence Committee. Troy also serves on the Walla Walla Emergency Management and Communications Advisory Board & the Walla Walla Traffic Safety Task Force Board.