COLLEGE PLACE SELECTS NEW CHIEF OF POLICE

COLLEGE PLACE, WA:

The Mayor and the City Council of the City of College Place are pleased to announce the selection of Troy Tomaras as College Place's new Chief of Police. His first day as Chief is March 1, 2017. Mr. Tomaras is currently a Lieutenant serving with the Washington State Patrol Homeland Security Division. He is a 25-year veteran of the State Patrol, rising through the ranks from Trooper to Lieutenant and has held a variety of assignments ranging from patrol, training, special weapons and tactics, human resources, to his current assignment in homeland security where he is responsible for the safety and security of the Washington State Ferry System. Mr. Tomaras holds an Associates of Arts Degree from Pierce College. Mr. Tomaras is "...humbled and excited to be a member of your community and lead the College Place Police Department!" Mayor Crowder is "exceptionally pleased that we could attract someone with Troy's qualifications; his knowledge and enthusiasm is a great addition to the City's team."
