Commissioner Hall said he is glad to be back after a slow summer and that he is looking forward to the rest of the year.

Commissioner Leonard wished all the families a good back to school. She said she is looking forward to some new business opening up soon. Restoration and promise of new businesses and a good Fall

Mayor Maley reminded residents of upcoming events; the Gala and the Book Festival.

Mayor Maley opened the meeting to the public:

Christine Scarpa 606 Atlantic Ave. thanked the Mayor and Commissioners for working on the parking issues on the 600 block of South Atlantic.

Larry DiGiovani - 745 Merrick Ave. asked if repairs were coming for the end of Merrick where the bridge meets Bettewood, Carl Jubb reported that we are just waiting for the county to come out and survey first. Then he commended the Police Department for a job well down in catching the Fountain Capers so quickly.

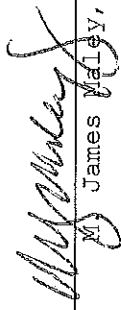

Brian Gordan - 600 N. Atlantic Avenue would like to see someone check into the parking ramps at the Lumberyard Public Parking Garage and also questioned the noise ordinance as it relates to the middle of the night 3:00 - 4:00 big truck deliveries to WAWA and Rite Aide and also the amount of noise that is made with the Dumpsters in that parking lot. Mayor responded that there is indeed a Noise Ordinance and that you must call this in when you hear this happening so that there is an official report on record.

Janet Reynolds - 600 N. Atlantic Avenue concerned about the amount of children riding their bikes through the parking garages at the Lumberyard and even getting into the private parking garage. Would like to see more Police presence. Chief Cary stated he would have more Police keeping an eye on the garages.

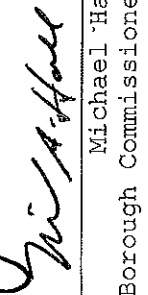

Susan Maynard - 131 E. Palmer Ave. Parking situation on streets and parking permits in regards too many people using old permits and not reapplying for the new ones so it is hard to tell which ones are old and which ones are good.

Richard Klingerman - 743 Maple Terrace - Also discussed the Parking Permit process and how he feels it should be controlled more with color charts to go with the parking permits

With no Further comments, Mayor Maley moved the meeting be adjourned at 8:20 PM, which was seconded.
