The Town of Geneva is located in Ontario County, in New York State, in the heart of the Finger Lakes region. We are situated along the northwestern shores of Seneca Lake, the deepest of the Finger Lakes. We have a population of approximately 3,500, offering residents a rural feel, surrounding the City of Geneva, where the library, post office and other municipal offices are found. The Town of Geneva has deep roots in farming and agriculture which can be seen in the growing farm to table food and beverage scene. We are happy to welcome you to our community of families, young professionals and retirees. This document is designed to answer many of the questions a newcomer might have regarding their move to the Town of Geneva!
