Ciballi Promoted to Deputy Chief, Genoa Township Police Department

Russ Ciballi was sworn in as Deputy Chief of Police during the December 1 Genoa Township Trustee Meeting. Russ Ciballi has served on the Genoa Township Police Department for 21 years after serving most recently in the role of Lieutenant.

“Deputy Chief Ciballi is one of our longest serving Officers,” said Trustee Gebhardt. “He has faithfully served our residents and members of our police department as a role model and is deserving of the honor of this promotion.”

During his time with the Genoa Township Police Department Ciballi accumulated a variety of accomplishments including being awarded Officer of the Year on three occasions, supervisor for 16 years, hostage crisis negotiator for 16 years, and winner of multiple life saving awards.

“Ciballi has shown tremendous ability to lead and train our officers,” said Chief of Police Steve Gammill. “I feel at ease having his partnership in leading our Department.”
