III. PUBLIC COMMENT

There was no public comment.

V. UPDATES ON FORUM SUBCOMMITTEE ACTIVITIES

The Council Members provided an update on recent activities. Members Gary, Mali and Mysel shared finalized details on the upcoming Town Hall on Thursday, September 9, 2021 at Writers Theatre. Member Gary shared the logistics behind the day of the event, Member Mali provided information on how the public can communicate input during the Town Hall

Members Flanagin, Scott and Young discussed their booth at the Farmer's Market. Members enjoyed collecting signatures on the "Welcoming and Inclusive Community Pledge" boards and interacting with residents. Member Moses suggested making decal for the Council, including stickers and magnets.

Chair Clark shared that the "Getting to Know the Heart of Glencoe" is popular among readers and complimented Members Moses and Ruben's work. Member Moses shared that there are other interviews queued and will be published soon.

The Budget sub-committee reviewed a draft version of the Council's CY 2022 budget proposal for the Village Board Trustees. Any edits to the draft version should be emailed to both Staff Liaisons - Public Safety Director Cary Lewandowski and Administrative Intern Emily Spangler - by September 10, and to include Members John Bjork and Gary Ruben on the emails.

Members also suggested to form a sub-committee to make biographies of Council Members on the Village of Glencoe's website.

VI. OTHER BUSINESS

Chair Clark shared that since the Council has 11 members currently, the Open Meetings Act, requires that members only meet in groups of two while discussing Council business.
