5. VEHICLE STICKER CONTEST

Member Flanagan related that the HRF received a total of 63 entries for the 2013 Village vehicle sticker contest as compared to the 129 entries last year. The theme for the sticker is the 100 year anniversary of Family Service of Glencoe.

There were many excellent designs that made selection of a single winner difficult, but the HRF Members eventually selected one submitted by Glencoe 3rd Grade Student Elizabeth Walther (847) 835-9849. The winning design will be reviewed by Staff prior to making notification to the Student to make sure it will still be legible once it is reduced in size and submitted to the printer.

6. THANKSGIVING TURKEY DRIVE

The Turkey Drive had been scheduled for Sunday November 11, 2012; however, it was decided that we needed more lead time to advertise the event. HRF members agreed to cancel the event this year and to begin advertising it earlier in 2013. Efforts will be made to mention the event at the 2013 July 4th activities and to place it on the agenda for the July 2013 HRF meeting. HRF member Joel Heifitz had intended to MC the event but would have needed to cancel due to a schedule conflict. It was agreed that Member Heifitz would receive right of first refusal to MC the event in 2013.

7. HOLIDAY FOOD AND TOY DRIVE

Brian Levernz from the New Trier Township Office advised that they usually receive a fair number of food & toy donations in December. He related that there was a greater need for donations in the Summer months. Discussion was held on trying to obtain items for donation next Summer in an effort to meet that need. It was requested that Glencoe Community Service Officer Katie Sweeney attend the next HRF meeting on November 14, 2012 to discuss this year's food & toy drive.
