VILLAGE OF GLENCOE
POLICE PENSION FUND - INDEMNIFICATION PROVISION

(40 ILCS 5/1-107) (from Ch. 108 1/2, par. 1-107)

Sec. 1-107. Indemnification of trustees, consultants and employees of retirement systems and pension funds. Every retirement system, pension fund or other system or fund established under this Code may indemnify and protect the trustees, staff and consultants against all damage claims and suits, including defense thereof, when damages are sought for negligent or wrongful acts alleged to have been committed in the scope of employment or under the direction of the trustees. However, the trustees, staff and consultants shall not be indemnified for wilful misconduct and gross negligence. Each board is authorized to insure against loss or liability of the trustees, staff and consultants which may result from these damage claims. This insurance shall be carried in a company which is licensed to write such coverage in this State.

CHAPTER 2
Administration

Article I. In General.¹

Sec. 2-1. Contracts - Signatures required.²

All contracts entered into by the village shall be signed by the village president and attested by the village clerk, unless some other officer is specifically authorized to enter into a contract on behalf of the village. (Code 1929, § 180.)

Sec. 2-2. Same -- Interest of village officers and employees.

No officer or employee of the village shall be directly or indirectly financially interested in any contract, work or business of the village, or the sale of any article, the expense, price or consideration of which is paid from the treasury, or by any assessment levied by any act or ordinance, or in the purchase of any real estate or other property.

Sec. 2-2A. Officer and Official indemnification and defense. (Ord. No. 86-6-1727; 91-11-1852.)

(a) The Village shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless its current and former non-compensated trustees, commissioners, board members, and officers, as well as representatives serving on other bodies who have been appointed by the Village Board of Trustees, against any civil, criminal, or administrative investigation, claims, actions, or proceedings, and any judgments, fines, liabilities, and other costs thereof, including reasonable attorney's fees and any amounts paid in any settlement concurred in by the Village, based upon any act, error or omission that could reasonably be construed to be within the exercise of their lawful duties. This section shall not apply to provide defense or indemnification to any such trustee, commissioner, board member, officer, or representative in any such investigation, claim action, or proceeding instituted by the Village against such trustee, commissioner, board member, officer, or representative

(b) The foregoing rights shall not be exclusive of any other rights which any current or former non-compensated trustee, commissioner, board member, officer, or representatives on other bodies who have been appointed by the Village Board of Trustees, may have as a matter of law. The foregoing rights shall, in the case of the death of such trustee, commissioner, board member, officer, or representative, inure to the benefit of his or her successors.

(c) The liability of the Village for payments hereunder may be insured to the extent permitted by law but to the extent not insured shall be payable out of the funds and monies of that Village.

Sec. 2-2B. Employee indemnification and defense (Ord. No. 86-7-1728).

(a) The Village shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless its current and former employees against any civil, criminal, or administrative investigations, claims, actions, or proceedings, and any judgments, fines, liabilities, and other costs thereof, including reasonable attorney's fees and any amounts paid in any settlement concurred in by the Village, based upon any act, error, or omission occurring within their scope of employment; except that any willful, wanton, grossly negligent, or intentional act of an employee shall not be protected by the terms of this subsection. Any such costs, whether incurred or anticipated, shall require the approval of the Board of Trustees in order to qualify for indemnity, except where the Village incurs such costs directly. This section shall not apply to provide defense or indemnification to any employee in any such investigation, claim, action, or proceeding instituted by the Village against such employee.

(b) The foregoing rights shall not be exclusive of any other rights that any current or former employee may have as a matter of law. The foregoing rights shall, in the case of the death of an employee, inure to the benefit of his or her successors.

¹ As to civil defense, see ch. 10 of this Code. As to fines and imprisonment, see ch. 16.

² As to purchases and expenditures in connection with civil defense, see § 10-9 of this Code. As to procurement of services, supplies, etc., in event of disaster, see § 10-10.

CHAPTER 2
