

★ VILLAGE OF GLENCOE PATRIOTIC DAYS ★

There are no other days in Glencoe that exemplify the spirit of community as much as Memorial Day and the Fourth of July. We hope that you are able to take part in these events once again this year! Below you'll find event details as well as a donation slip for the Glencoe Patriotic Days Fund. Much of the cost of these events, including the fireworks display, is made possible by your generous contributions. Either return the slip to the Patriotic Days Committee per the directions below, or save the stamp and make your donation online at www.villageofglencoe.org/pay. Thank you for your continued support of these Glencoe traditions!

MEMORIAL DAY CEREMONY

11 a.m., Monday, May 28

Veteran's Memorial Park

Rain Location: Takiff Center

Join the Village and the Glencoe Historical Society as we honor the many Glencoe residents who sacrificed their lives in service to our nation. This event will feature a brief ceremony, wreath-laying and flag raising.

FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATIONS

All Day, Wednesday, July 4

The most celebrated day in the Village begins at the train station with the Glencoe Rotary Club Fun-Run, followed by pre-school games and Glencoe's Got Talent at Kalk Park and the parade in Downtown Glencoe. The day rounds out with food vendors, live music and fireworks at Lakefront Park. Stay tuned to the Village and Glencoe Park District websites and social media pages for times and details.

Watch for more details on the Village website at www.villageofglencoe.org, on social media, in Village eNews and on the Glencoe Park District website at www.glencoeParkDistrict.com.

Please cut along line and return bottom portion.
