January - April, 2021

Highland Park Senior Center
NEWSLETTER
54 Laurel Avenue, Highland Park
847.432.4110
Monday - Friday, 8 AM - 5 PM

Due to the continued health and safety threat of COVID-19, the Highland Park Senior Center will remain closed until further notice; the Connector bus will also remain out of service during this time.

Currently, Senior Center staff are working remotely most of the time, however the office will be staffed a few days a week, in order to receive and open mail, make and answer phone calls, care for the facility, and operate the loan closet.

The Highland Park Senior Center is committed to offering high-quality, virtual activities throughout these unprecedented times. Interactive programs are carefully selected in order to bring people together, make connections, and promote a feeling of inclusion in an uplifting and supportive community.

If you are not familiar with Zoom and would like to meet virtually with a one-on-one Zoom tutor, please email Jennifer to be matched with a volunteer.

If there is anything staff can assist you with, please message one of the staff below. Or, feel free to call the Center at 847.432.4110. If no one answers, please leave a message and someone will call you back within the next business day.

Laura Frey, Manager of Senior Services	lfrey@cityhpil.com

Virtual Concerts

1:30 - 2:30 PM

Zoom, Drop-in

Sponsored by Aperion Care

An Afternoon of French Music

Wednesday, January 20

The Highland Park Senior Center is excited and honored to welcome the Black Oak Ensemble! Comprised of Grammy-nominated violinist Desirée Ruhstrat, cellist David Cunliffe of the acclaimed Lincoln Trio, and violist Aurélien Fort Pederzoli, they will perform classical works by French composers.

Valentine's Love Songs

Sunday, February 14

Michael Mahler and Dara Cameron are a multi-faceted, critically acclaimed Chicago performing duo - and they are happily married to each other. Join them for a concert of their favorite love songs, both old and new. Relive wonderful moments shared with loved ones, set to the music you cherish, sung by two of Chicago's best and brightest.

Celtic Concert

Tuesday, March 16

Join Katie Sullivan for a St. Patrick's Day Celebration! Along with catchy, energetic folk/rock originals, Katie is also known for rocking out some of the most popular Irish pub tunes, and she will have you dancing in your seat.

The Best of Broadway

Tuesday, April 20

Enjoy a fun-filled musical concert featuring some of Broadway's most popular show tunes. Delight in beautiful renditions of songs from Hello Dolly, South Pacific, West Side Story, and more.

Barry Bradford Presents

Fridays, 1:30 - 3 PM

Zoom, Drop-in

Sponsored by BrightStar Care

American Royalty

Four unique presentations about Americans who married into royalty.

January 29 Grace Kelly

Grace Kelly was American film royalty. Her talent, poise, and beauty captivated audiences around the world. They also captivated the Prince of Monaco. Barry will highlight career, marriage, charitable work, and tragic death.

February 26 Rita Hayworth

Margarita Carmen Cansino was an impossibly beautiful actress and gifted dancer. Not wanting a Hispanic movie star, the studio changed her hair color to red and gave her the name Rita Hayworth. She appeared in 61 movies in a 37 year career, but she was an unhappy sex symbol. Her marriage to Prince Aly Khan is a fascinating story as is her unlikely career.

March 26 Little-Known Stories

From the sister of Jackie Kennedy to the man who married the last queen of Hawaii, from the American who became Queen Noor of Jordan to the girl who married a Prince of Russia (in Chicago) these are the little-known stories of Americans who married into royalty.

April 23 Meghan Markle & Wallis Simpson

When Prince Harry sought a bride, who could have expected that it would be divorced, bi-racial American actress Meghan Markle? Who would have thought twice divorced American party girl, Wallis Simpson, would be the one to bring down the British monarchy? These two fascinating stories of very different women will intrigue you.

Book Club Discussion

Monday, 1 - 2 PM
Zoom, Registration Required

Join professional facilitator Alice Moody as she leads an engaging and topical discussion. Explore notions of theme, style, tone and perspective, and connect the reading with your own personal experiences. Advanced registration required.

Paris Never Leaves You by Ellen Feldman

January 25

Alternating between wartime Paris and 1950s New York publishing, this is an extraordinary story of resilience, love, and impossible choices, exploring how survival never comes without a cost.

Monogamy by Sue Miller

February 22

A brilliantly insightful novel, engrossing and haunting, about marriage, love, family, happiness and sorrow.

Hum if You Don't Know the Words

March 29 by Bianca Marais

A beautifully rendered look at loss, racism, and the creation of family. This story is a perceptive and searing look at Apartheid-era South Africa, told through one unique family brought together by tragedy.

Anxious People by Fredrik Backman

Monday, April 26

A poignant novel about a crime that never took place, a would-be bank robber who disappears into thin air, and eight extremely anxious strangers who find they have more in common than they ever imagined.

Nature Workshops

Tuesday, 1:30 - 2:30 PM
Zoom, Registration Required
Sponsored by Radford Green

Tuesday, April 13 Biomimicry

Have you ever had velcro shoes? Thank biomimicry! Biomimicry observes nature to see how it has solved problems, and then copies the techniques and applies them to new innovations. Learn how other animals, and plants are being studied to solve today's problems.

Tuesday, May 25 Spring Birding

There is nothing like spring for birding. Spring showers and warming temps bring our forest back to life with song birds and migrators. Take a look and listen with Heller staff on what spring birds come back to Illinois. **Program will be held in person, following pandemic safety precautions and restrictions. Alternative virtual plans will be made should restrictions prevent gathering in person.*

January 4            Meet Your Calendar

Of course, you know the days of the week and all twelve months. You are on a first-name basis! But do you really know them? For whom was Tuesday named? Who or what exactly is the namesake of February? An introduction is overdue, and humorist and historian Eugene Finerman will handle the etiquette.

January 18            MLK Day – No Program

Please join the City's Virtual Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration at 10 AM. www.cityhpil.com/MLK

February 1            The Romance of the Violin

Valentine's Day is in the air, and Jim Kendros returns to bring the perfect musical accompaniment to this romantic time of year! Join Jim and enjoy romantic music for violin! Experience the highly melodious Romance #1 for Violin and Orchestra by Beethoven, and revel in Tchaikovsky's exquisite Serenade Melancolique. Delight in the elegance of Mozart and the captivating expressions of Schubert. Fascinating glimpses into the lives of each composer will be highlighted. Get excited for an afternoon of beautiful, romantic violin music!

February 15            Sex Trafficking Awareness

Join the Jewish Community Against Sex Trafficking (JCAST) Chicago for an eye-opening discussion on the fastest growing criminal enterprise and its surprising local connection. JCAST's mission is to educate, increase awareness, and end the demand for purchased sex. When demand diminishes, so does supply.

March 1                Chicago in the Movies

Chicago is featured in some of the most beloved movies in cinema history, from musicals to action films, from comedies to gangster films, Chicago has covered it all! Steven Frenzel shares clips of memorable characters such as Eliot Ness, Jake and Elwood Blues, Al Capone, Dr. Richard Kimble (The Fugitive), Ferris Bueller and more in this celebration of the Windy City!

March 15              Fort Sheridan

Learn the history and unique stories of Fort Sheridan in this presentation that draws from the Dunn Museum's archives. Topics include the founding of Fort Sheridan, its distinctive architecture, notable residents, and ways visitors can interact with the Fort today as one of Lake County's many forest preserves.

April 5                 Beautiful Orchestral Delights

Spring is coming! Jim Kendros welcomes the return of warmer weather with orchestral music which is sure to please and delight you! As Jim says, "Music history is abundant with miniature orchestral gems. Liken this to discovering small, exquisite treasures in a diamond mine. The delights are endless, rich in musical beauty!" Experience the abundant treasures of Bach, Handel, Mozart, Faure, Mascagni, and more as Jim brings these exquisite miniature orchestral gems to savor, relish and enjoy!

April 19                Poetry on Parade

Join Highland Park Poetry's celebration of National Poetry Month (April). Local poets will read their work employing a wide variety of poetic styles, themes and forms, including highlights from the 2021 Poetry Challenge. Attendees are invited to bring a favorite poem to share as well.

Social Services Coordinator

Social Services Coordinator, Jennifer Aiello, LPC, is available to help individuals and families as they navigate through life's transitions. In order to help maintain or improve one's quality of life and well being, social services include individual and family counseling, support groups, and information and referrals including:

- Information and referrals for caregiving agencies, alternative living facilities, transportation options, medical alert systems and mobile meals assistance
- Counseling for individuals experiencing loss, life changes, or seeking personal support
- Grief Group for those experiencing recent loss within the past year
- Appointments with a SHIP (Senior Health Insurance Program) volunteer
- Telephone Reassurance Program for senior adults living alone.

For further information or to schedule an appointment, call Jennifer at 847.926.1868.

Senior Center Loan Closet

By appointment only

Senior Center members and Highland Park residents may borrow medical equipment including wheelchairs, walkers, bath benches, and more. Items are available for an unlimited amount of time, and there is no charge for use. A liability waiver must be signed by the individual who will be using the equipment, prior to it's use. Please email Jennifer at jaiello@cityhil.com to schedule an appointment.

Grief Group

Wednesdays, 1:30 - 2:30 PM

February 3 - February 24 (4 weeks)

Zoom, Registration Required

Grief is a difficult journey to walk alone when a loss occurs. Having a safe place to express feelings can offer great comfort. This group is for those who are experiencing grief due to the death of a loved one within the past year. Facilitated by Jennifer Aiello, LPC, this four week interactive group will address the process of mourning, provide coping skills and offer the support of others facing a similar loss. Each registrant must attend the initial meeting in order to participate. Please register by Wednesday, January 27th.

SHIP – Senior Health Insurance Program

Volunteers are available free of charge to (1) help interpret and resolve problems with medical bills, Medicare, Medicare supplemental insurance, and with appeals, if needed; (2) explain the Medicare supplements available for people just becoming eligible or who are interested in changing plans; (3) review and explain long-term care policies; and (4) explain the Medicare Prescription Drug Plan.

Senior Benefit Access Program

Help from the State of Illinois may be available for Illinois residents who are age 65 and older, or age 16 and older and totally disabled. Benefits include: seniors ride free transit benefit, persons with disabilities free transit ride, and Secretary of State license plate discount. To be determined eligible for these benefits, applications must be submitted on the Internet at: www.illinois.gov/aging. Please call Jennifer at 847.432.4110 for further information or assistance completing the on-line application.

Social Services

Senior Center Financial Scholarship

Scholarship dollars may be used by residents toward membership, trips, classes, or special events. Scholarship approval is based on proof of City of Highland Park residency and financial need, as determined by the Benefit Access Program.

- Annual membership is waived
- Scholarship maximum is $100 per calendar year,
- Program and class fees are covered 75%, with 25% paid by the participant

Please contact Social Services Coordinator, Jennifer Aiello, at jaiello@cityhpil.com to schedule an appointment to determine qualification.

Reduced Rates for City Services

Resident households who qualify under the federal HUD low-income rates are eligible for reduced rates of garbage, sewer, diseased elm tree removal and vehicle sticker fees. Call Highland Park's City Hall at 847.432.0800 for further information.

Well-Being Checks for Seniors

The Highland Park Police Department offers courtesy well-being checks to seniors during periods of extreme weather and temperatures. Please contact Detective Brian Soldano at 847.926-1083.

Notary Public - At Your Service!

Notary Public, Jennifer Aiello, is available to notarize and certify the proper execution of your life-changing documents - real estate, powers of attorney, etc. Please email Jennifer at jaiello@cityhpil.com to set up an appointment.

SMART 911 –

Emergency Notification Platform

The City of Highland Park is transitioning from the former Emergency Notification System to a new notification and 911 caller profile and information system. If you were signed up for the former Emergency Notification System, you will need to register with this program. The City is using Smart911 to allow anyone with a phone – mobile, landline or Voice Over IP (VOIP) – to create a Safety Profile online and sign up to receive emergency notifications.

To Sign Up: Go to smart911.com - there is no fee or cost for this service. Create an account that is private and secure. Once the account is created and verified, the user has many options including the opt-in of the Emergency Notification System. The City recommends setting up a “Safety Profile” and setting up notification preferences. *If assistance is needed, please call Jennifer who can help with sign up.

Senior Transportation Opportunities

Moraine Township Door-to-Door Van Program

Moraine Township's Door-to-Door Van Program provides transportation for seniors and disabled residents. Call 847.432.3000 to schedule a ride.

RTA Passes

Seniors and disabled residents may apply for RTA passes at the Township Office. This service is free to Township residents; $5 for nonresidents. RTA passes offer free bus and train rides to those who are income qualified.
