Congratulations To Sunset Foods

Highland Park's own Sunset Foods was among twenty-six suburban companies and business organizations honored for their achievements and community involvement at the 28th Annual Awards for Business Excellence (AABE), hosted by the Daily Herald Business Ledger and its sponsoring partners.

The AABEs highlight successful suburban businesses and organizations and honor the people who make them successful. They are given for business achievement, growth and community involvement, and are presented to businesses and nonprofits with a significant presence in the suburban circulation area of the Daily Herald Business Ledger. Sunset Foods was honored as a family business.
