Dear Mayor Rotering

I am getting in touch from the BBC's main UK news show, "Today".

I know the suspect in the terrible shooting at the Independence Day parade is still at large, and that media probably isn't the top priority right now.

But we wondered whether you might consider recording a short interview with us later today that we could broadcast tomorrow morning?

It would be about the impact the shooting has had on your community – and the shock, presumably, of the attack.

Because of the time difference, we would hope to record something at around 10:15pm your time.

We could do the interview via FaceTime audio, Skype or Zoom, and it would take about 5 minutes.

Do you think this is something that might be possible for you?

Kind regards

Ann

RE: Critical incident crisis debriefing

Thank you so much for the amazingly supportive and fast response. My apologies for the delay in response, it has been busy here.

I talked with the group here, and I don't think we will be ready to have a debrief tonight. I was informed that the school districts are coordinating community sessions tomorrow, but we would like if possible to have a counselor available at the Senior Center tomorrow for the community if you have anyone available — we can be flexible on time. We would also like to set up a session or two for our staff later in the week if we can make that work.

Hello,

I am devastated to hear that a suburban neighborhood so close to me has been the scene of a horrible shooting that should have never ever taken place. Though I am not from Highland Park, I would still like to offer my services in whatever way you may need me. If you need help picking up after everybody's abandoned items, if you need help cleaning up the mess that was made, if any businesses or residents need help boarding up their windows, I will be here for them. This is not a task for the witnesses and the hurt, this is a task for other communities to come together.

Please reply back letting me know. Out of courtesy and respect, I will not bother the department about me helping out too much. You're already a busy brotherhood as hard as it is. Here is my information, available anyday starting tomorrow after 10am.

Hi Amy!

Thank you for everything you do to keep our city safe. The event that occurred was one that no one expected to happen in our city! We as CERTS are prepared for something like this in the event that something does happen and in the case of today, I saw my fellow CERTS such as Merle step up and take charge near city hall closing streets. I was still around, so I helped barricade streets that she told me to block. It is in our nature both as CERTS and as citizens of Highland Park to serve and assist when needed.

Thank you again for serving our city!

RE: BBC RADIO "TODAY" show - Polite request for an interview about the SHOOTING AT THE PARADE...

[EXTERNAL EMAIL]

Dear Nancy

Thank you very much for taking the trouble to reply to me at what must be an extremely tense time.

We've just seen on the news wires in the last few minutes that it looks like a suspect has been arrested, so hopefully that will bring some relief.

Amanda – I will email you separately to see whether this is an interview that might work for the Mayor.

Ps. I am emailing you back from my personal aol address, because the Highland Park City Council server doesn't seem to like my BBC email address - it keeps saying that it is blocked!

Best wishes

Excellent work! I am a retired California Police Chief and a former lieutenant with L.A. County Sheriff. In so many recent incidents, law enforcement has come up short in handling of significant incidents. This was not the case here! Your personnel, and you personally, along with the Lake County Sheriff's rep. did an outstanding job keeping the public informed. The rapid identification of the "person of interest" is a testament to exceptional police work and a credit to our profession. Bravo!!!!! It was a relief to see competent police work being done. Please extend my personal thanks and my professional observation of competence to your staff.

Dear Amanda

It's Ann from the BBC news show "Today" here, following up on our request for an interview this evening with Mayor Rotering.

We are really keen to see whether this could work for her - and I am wondering whether there is an out-of-hours number that I could reach you on for a quick chat?

I am on the UK number + Land Could talk on FaceTime audio or WhatsApp to save a long distance call (although I don't think many people in the US use that.)

In any case, it would be great to touch base with you.

Ps. I'm emailing from my private aol address because my emails to Highland Park council addresses seem to be "undeliverable" when I send them from my BBC email address!

With best wishes

Dear Nancy,

Thinking of you and the craziness you are going through. At Makom Solel Lakeside, we are planning to get together Wednesday evening at 7 for a vigil/gathering. If you are ready for something like that, I want to invite you to join us. Thus far we think our community has no casualties (other synagogues have not been so lucky), but we did have a lot of people there who are feeling some level of trauma. We hope to provide a place of comfort and a sense of moving forward.

Best wishes and blessings,

Rabbi Ike
