are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.*

In June 2023, the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children provided the Huntley Police Department with information that was obtained from the Internet Crimes Against Children data system pertaining to the possible possession of child pornography by an unidentified Internet subscriber. Upon receiving this information, the Huntley Police Department's Investigations Division conducted a four-month investigation that led to the identification of the offender, Allen Q. Nguyen.

In the early morning hours of Tuesday, October 24, 2023, Huntley Police Detectives, with the assistance of the Kane County Child Exploitation Unit, served a search warrant at a residence in the 10400 block of Auburn Ct. where Allen Q. Nguyen was renting a room. Allen Q. Nguyen was taken into custody based on evidence gained during the search.

Allen Q. Nguyen was taken to the McHenry County Jail and was charged with the following felonies:

- Child Pornography – Reproduce or Distribute of Video – Class X
- Child Pornography – Reproduce or Distribute – Victim Under 13 – Class X
- Child Pornography – Possess Visual Reproduction on Computer /Video - Victim Under 13– Class 2
- Child Pornography – Possess Visual Reproduction on Computer/Video– Class 2

This is still an active investigation and no further details will be released at this time.

Anyone with information regarding this case is encouraged to contact the Huntley Police Department at 847-515-5311. Anonymous tips can also be submitted by calling the Huntley Police Tip Line at 847-515-5333 or by texting TIP HUNTLEY followed by your message to 888777.
