

PRESS RELEASE

CONTACT: DEPUTY CHIEF LINDA HOOTEN
PHONE: 847-515-5336

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
SEPTEMBER 28, 2022

On Monday, July 18, 2022, at approximately 4:18 am, officers of the Huntley Police Department responded to the 11800 block of Cape Cod Lane for a report of shots fired. The offender left the scene prior to the officers' arrival. During the course of the investigation, the offender was identified as Lewis McCracken and warrants were obtained for his arrest.

Through an intensive investigation, Huntley Police Department Detectives identified a location where McCracken may have been staying on September 27, 2022. A search warrant was obtained and served for a residence in Donora, Pennsylvania later that day. With the assistance of multiple agencies, Lewis McCracken was taken into custody and is currently being held at the Washington County jail awaiting extradition.

The Huntley Police Department would like to thank the following agencies for their assistance in this case: McHenry County Major Investigative Assistance Team, McHenry County State's Attorney's Office, Donora Police Department, Washington County Sheriff's Fugitive Unit, Charleroi Pennsylvania FBI Office, Charleroi Police Department, Washington County Drug Task Force, Washington County Regional SWAT.

This is still an active investigation and no further details will be released at this time.

Person Charged: Lewis C. McCracken, M/B, 27 years old
 292 Villa St. Apt 1
 Elgin, IL 60120

Charges: Attempted Murder – X Felony (4 counts)
 Aggravated Battery – Class 3 Felony
 Unlawful Possession of a Weapon by a Felon (Subsequent Offence) – Class 2 Felony

Court Date: To be determined

Bond: $750,000

