ABSENTEE VOTING - VOTE AT HOME

Join the Permanent Absentee Voter List and you will be sent an application for a ballot for every election, allowing you to vote your ballot at home. If you request to be on the Permanent AV List:

- You receive an application for an absentee ballot for every election in the City of Kentwood
- You decide - return the application to receive your absentee ballot, or you may discard the application and appear in person to vote on election day
- By voting absentee, you can take the time you need to study the ballot and vote from home
- By voting absentee, you can avoid going out to your voting precinct on election day
- Simply return your absentee ballot by mail or in person to the City Clerk's office, 4900 Breton Ave., by 8 pm on election day

Yes, please add me to the Permanent Absentee Voter List.

I would like to receive an application for a ballot for all elections for as long as I remain a registered voter in the City of Kentwood.
