City of Kentwood, Georgetown Seniors Host Annual Spotlight on Seniors Expo April 19 Event Will Feature 50 Vendors, Free Health Screenings and Lunch

Kentwood, Michigan, March 15, 2022 – The City of Kentwood and Georgetown Seniors are inviting community members to celebrate successful aging and connect with resources at the 23rd annual Spotlight on Seniors Expo on Tuesday, April 19.

The free indoor event will take place 8:30 a.m.-noon at the Kentwood Activities Center, 355 48th St. SE. It will feature 50 vendors representing a variety of senior-oriented businesses, free health screenings for blood pressure, posture, grip strength and mental health, as well as door prizes and free snacks and lunch.

“The Spotlight on Seniors Expo is a meaningful way for seniors and other community members to come together in celebration of successful aging and to learn about local resources that support healthy lifestyles,” said Kentwood Recreation Program Coordinator Ann Przybysz. “Our partnership with Georgetown Seniors and our event sponsors is key to the long-term success of this community favorite.”

Participating vendors include professionals knowledgeable in everything from physical therapy and assisted living to home improvement and health care.

“Staying active, healthy and connected is paramount to our senior neighbors,” said Pam Haverdink, director of the Georgetown Senior Center. “We are pleased to partner with Kentwood Seniors and we are grateful to the vendors who help make it happen.”

The gold sponsors of the 23rd annual Spotlight on Seniors Expo are Countryside Tours, Humana and The Oaks at Byron Center. Silver sponsors are HealthBridge, Home Instead, Mission Point Healthcare Services, Priority Health, Rivertown Ridge Senior Living, Sheldon Meadows Assisted Living Center, UnitedHealthcare and We Care 4 U, LLC.

Vendor space is available. For more information, contact Ann Przybysz at 616.656.5284 or przybysza@kentwood.us.
