South Kent Community Expo Highlights Local Organizations
All-Ages Event Will Feature 50-plus Businesses, Health Screenings, Food and More

Kentwood, Michigan, Oct. 3, 2022 – Community members of all ages are invited to the sixth annual South Kent Community Expo on Tuesday, Oct. 25.

The free event is hosted by the City of Kentwood and takes place from 9 a.m.-12:30 p.m. at the Kentwood Activities Center, 355 48th St. SE. There will be a variety of products and services from more than 50 local businesses, as well as health screenings, door prizes and refreshments. The free health screenings will include blood pressure, spine alignment and more.

“We have a great lineup of vendors and goodies that’s sure to have something for everyone,” Recreation Program Coordinator Ann Przybysz said. “All are welcome to join us for this fun, community-focused event.”

The touchdown sponsor of this year’s football-themed expo is Humana. Field goal sponsors are SERVPRO of South and Northwest GR, Star Insurance Agency LLC and Tim Hortons.

Vendor space at the expo is available. Interested vendors are encouraged to complete an online vendor registration form. More information about the event is available at kentwood.us/SouthKentCommunityExpo.
