Felony Assault with a Knife

Kentwood, MI - The Kentwood Police Department is investigating a felony assault with a knife at 5789 Sable Ridge. Police were sent to an assault at a party at approximately 3:30 AM on the above date. When officers arrived at the scene, they found 4 individuals that had been cut and/or stabbed. All of the subjects were transported to local hospitals for treatment. Two of the individuals were treated for minor injuries and have since been released. One individual underwent surgery for a serious, but non-life threatening stab wound to his arm. The fourth individual was in critical but stable condition after surgery this morning.

The Kentwood Police Department has two adult males in custody at this time. These individuals are currently persons of interest. Everyone that was involved in this incident is believed to be accounted for. The Kentwood Police Department's Detective Bureau is investigating this incident. More information will be released as the investigation proceeds. Anyone with information on this assault is asked to contact the Kentwood Detective Bureau at (616) 656-6600.
