Volunteers in Police Service – Neighborhood Patrol Recruitment

Kentwood, Michigan – The Kentwood Police Department is looking for volunteers to become part of the Neighborhood Patrol Volunteer Programs.

Neighborhood Patrol Volunteers assist officers with parking enforcement, vacation house checks, City ordinance violation reporting, hazardous condition reporting, site inspections, events, and other duties. A minimum four-hour commitment per week is requested.

Volunteers must be at least 21 years of age, have a friendly demeanor, undergo application and screening process, pass a background check, and attend a 20-hour Department training.

Share your knowledge and experience by investing your time in the Volunteers in Police Service program.

For more information, contact Vicki Highland at 616-656-6571 or e-mail highlandv@kentwood.us.
