REQUIREMENTS: To be considered, candidates must be of good moral character and understand that any acts that reflect dishonesty, deceit, or misrepresentation adversely reflects on their fitness to perform their duties as a police officer. Candidates must have physical strength, stamina and agility to sufficiently perform the duties of this position.

RESPONSIBILITIES: The King City Sergeant position works directly under the supervision of the Lieutenant and Chief of Police. Responsibilities included but are not limited to: general day-to-day supervision, approving reports, responding and supervising critical incidents, overseeing investigations, managing resources, and briefing command staff. This position is critical to call-servicing and scheduling will be subject to the Chief of Police's discretion and the city's needs. As of now, this position will be graveyard or late swing shift.

Candidates must possess intermediate certificate, with preference to those who possess advanced or higher. It is recommended that candidates possess or are eligible to obtain a DPSST Supervisory certification or equivalent out of state certification. Candidates must be U.S. citizens, have no felony convictions, be at least 21 years of age, have as a minimum a high school diploma or G.E.D. equivalent, and a valid driver's license with an acceptable driving record. Preferred candidates will have some level of post high school education. Candidates must have the ability to successfully complete a thorough background investigation and post-offer psychological and medical examination, including pre-employment drug screen. Ideal candidates will be individuals who have a proven track record of being honest, objective, hard-working, knowledgeable, well rounded in job performance, able to communicate effectively with excellent customer service skills and must be respected by superiors, peers and subordinates alike. The King City Police Sergeant position is supervisory, but also carries a strong patrol component with call taking responsibilities. You will take calls for service on a regular basis. Must be able to work alone and be able to make good decisions. Must have at least five years of patrol experience to qualify.

SELECTION & NOTIFICATION PROCESS: Candidates selected for further consideration will be scheduled for Oral Boards and/or an Assessment Center at a later date.

Internal employees seeking this position must write a letter of intent by the deadline.
