CELEBRATING 20 YEARS

Above: Village President Chris Voll cuts a ribbon to celebrate Kronenwetter's 20 years as a village on Nov. 17, 2022.

Looking back to look ahead in Kronenwetter

The role of the Village Board, as defined by the Wisconsin Legislature, is to 'have the management and control of the village property, finances, highways, streets, navigable waters, and the public service, and shall have the power to act for the government and good order of the village, for its commercial benefit and for the health, safety, welfare and convenience of the public...' The information posted on the state's website is quite lengthy about what we, the trustees, are charged with doing and I, for one, take that responsibility very seriously. In fact, one of the words used often when outlining the duties is PRIVILEGE. It is indeed a privilege to have been voted into office by the residents of the village and be given the trust of those residents to accomplish the work we do in the best interests of all the residents in total. Not just one person or a small group. I'm quite happy that the majority of trustees through the years have felt and acted in that same manner. Trusting us with your home and community is a big deal and ensuring that your home and community is affordable, safe, comfortable and a good investment is what the board is charged with upholding.

It is also important for us to look back into the history of our Village in order to move it forward. With the recent celebration of the Village being 20 years old, that history is important to know, recognize and honor as we take those first kernels of ideas and build them into the future. From roads and wells, to businesses and subdivisions, we look at how those were created in order to continue using our resources for growth and development. As I mentioned in my interview by WSAW Channel 7 during the Village Anniversary Party, we are hopeful for the future and elements such as the Kowalski Road interchange could help us significantly.

What the Village always needs is to have involved citizens participating in the committees that help us build that future. I invite all residents to review the Village website and find something to become involved with, become a committee member, attend a committee or board meeting. As we're heading into the 2023 election season, now is the perfect time for Kronenwetter residents to review the board membership, ask questions of the current slate of officers, build your own plan for participation in both the election and your community.

My family has resided here for just over 22 years now and it is extremely gratifying to see the work that the Village Board and I have done as we drive around. Many new subdivisions, the plethora of new homes lining our quiet streets, the several new businesses, or the water issues from Golden Pond that I helped to engineer, plus the activity at our parks. Kronenwetter is a delightful place to live and takes all residents pitching in with time and talent to maintain our way of life.

If you have your yard decorated this holiday season, don't forget to register for the decorating contest! My wife Holly and I urge you to drive around and take in the festive decorations and enjoy.

From my family to yours, Happy New Year!

Chris Voll, Village of Kronenwetter President

Here's what to do if you're in the newly mapped floodplain

The Village has received revised Federal Emergency Management Agency floodplain maps. We are currently in the 90-day comment period. This period applies to major changes, not to individual properties.

Mortgage lenders will require flood insurance until they review the new maps, which will take until March 2023. Until then, if you are currently in the floodplain, you will need to continue your flood insurance.

- Homeowners that feel they are out of the floodplain with the new maps, should contact their mortgage lenders in March to inquire whether they can remove their flood insurance. If the mortgage lender does not remove the need for flood insurance and the homeowner feels that their property is out, they will need to apply for a Letter of Map Amendment (LOMA). This will require hiring a surveyor to complete a LOMA. For more information on this process visit the following FEMA website page:
- For those that were out of the floodplain, but now find themselves within the flood area, their mortgage lenders should be notifying them about the flood insurance requirement in March 2023.
- If the property owner feels they should not be in the newly mapped floodplain, they can apply for a LOMA with engineering proof of elevation above the area highwater elevation. This will require a hired surveyor to complete a LOMA. This should not be applied for until March 2023. By then FEMA will have had the time for date to be reviewed to make any elevation changes that the lending companies have time to review.

For more information on how to apply for a Letter of Map Amendment (LOMA) use this QR code.

- For those who want to make a land configuration change or fill in the floodplain, you would need FEMA approval in the form of a Letter of Map Recommendation-Fill (LOMR-F). Again, it is recommended that this be done in March 2023 at the earliest.

For more information on how to apply for a Letter of Map Recommendation-Fill (LOMR-F) use this QR Code.

Sean Dumais appointed to the Village Board

Sean Dumais is sworn into office by Village Clerk Bobbi Birk-LaBarge on Wed. Jan. 4, 2023

Kronenwetter resident Sean Dumais was appointed as a Village trustee at the Dec. 27 Village Board meeting.

Dumais was one of four candidates to apply for the role. The position was left open by Tami Bloch who recently moved from the area.

Bloch had won the seat in the 2022 Spring Election.

Dumais, Alexander Vedvik, Mary E. Solheim, and Kelly R. Coyle submitted an application to the Village Board to replace Bloch.

The candidates were given time during the Dec. 27 meeting to introduce themselves and the reasons behind their intention to fill the seat. They also fielded questions from board members.

The board voted to place Dumais in the open seat with six yes votes and one abstention.

Dumais brings a background in business, analytics, and human resources to the Village. Today he runs non-profit businesses focused on training service dogs for disabled veterans and law enforcement agencies.

"I would like to serve my community by being an active part of the team that comes up with solutions instead of excuses, as well as set our community up for future success by forward thinking and actively working towards our mission statement goals," Dumais wrote in his application.

Dumais was born in Germany, grew up in California and moved to Kronenwetter in 2009 when he returned from a tour in Iraq. He has two daughters, one son, and a granddaughter. He spends his free time coaching football. He currently serves on the Administrative Policy Committee and is working on an efficiency study report for the Village. Thank you for serving the Village, Trustee Dumais.

Water utility update

Construction of the water metering station is complete. This station was intended for use with the Village's plan to purchase water from Rothschild. These plans were put on hold when Rothschild reported high PFAS (polyfluorinated alkyl substances) levels in their water.

Currently, the Village is working on building a filtration plant which will filter the high iron and manganese from well No. 2. Becher-Hoppe Associates, Inc. is working on finalizing the design. Completion of the plant is expected by the end of the year.

For updated information on the water utilities, attend the Utility Committee meetings. These meetings take place every first Tuesday of the month at 5:45 p.m in the Village Board Room at the Municipal Center. Find the agendas and packets at www.kronenwetter.org. If you have questions or comments regarding the water utility projects, contact Public Work Director/Utility Manager Dan Hekrdle at dhekrdle@kronenwetter.org.

Make room the for snow plows

The Village of Kronenwetter's snow plows are ready for winter! During a snow event, please remember to drive with caution and give snowplows plenty of room. We are watching the streets for you, and deployment will be made as needed according to developing conditions.

The Village of Kronenwetter is NOT responsible for plowing county or state highways.

NO STREET PARKING from Nov. 1 to May 1 between the hours of 2:00 a.m. to 7:00 a.m. Keep the streets clear for our snowplows.

Violations can result in a parking citation, and if the situation dictates the vehicle may be towed at the owner's expense. You can request permission to park overnight by calling the Marathon County Sheriff's Department non-emergency number at 715-261-1200. Permission will not be granted if snow is forecasted. In the event permission was granted but an unexpected snowfall occurs, you will be contacted and asked to move your vehicle.

It is up to residents to clear the snow from the area adjacent to their mailbox. If you think your mailbox was damaged by one of our plows, please contact the Village at 715-693-4200, so we can investigate the issue.

If you have a fire hydrant near your home, please consider shoveling any snow accumulations around it.

Theresa O'Brien named Kronenwetter's first female fire chief

In 2005, Theresa O'Brien's husband, Timothy O'Brien, asked her to join the Kronenwetter Fire Department. He had been fighting fires since 1992 and had joined the department in 2004.

"At the time I decided to join, our son (15 at the time) told me I'd never pass fire school," she said. "That was a challenge I couldn't pass up."

In Dec. 2005, O'Brien proved her 15-year-old wrong and officially became a full-fledged firefighter.

"First day I walked into the fire station as a firefighter it felt like I was there for a purpose and never looked back," said O'Brien.

In 2007, she added first responder to her resume. Ten years later, she was promoted to Lieutenant/EMS Coordinator. In 2021, she became the Deputy Chief/EMS Coordinator. Today, she leads the department as the Village's first female fire chief.

"I wanted Kronenwetter Fire to have a leader that the members could respect and look up to," said O'Brien. "A leader is either what makes or breaks a department."

O'Brien is certain to forge a department of excellence as she moves forward in the new role.

"We need to look toward the future but at the same time not forgetting where the department came from and where it is right now," she said. "I want to build up our training and make sure everyone is learning and feels like they are part of something good."

The biggest challenge is staffing, she said. This year seven firefighters were added to the roster, but the department still needs more. There is still room for at least 13 firefighters and EMS responders.

"We recently received pay increases to be more competitive in the industry," said O'Brien. "As call volumes continue to increase, having enough personnel to respond is the most important."

O'Brien also wants to start investigating and researching the possibility of an ambulance service in Kronenwetter.

New ladder truck rolling into 2023

The Village Board recently approved the purchase of a new ladder truck. The Piece Mfg 100" Ascendant Aerial Platform provides a 110' vertical reach and a 90' horizontal reach.

Fire Chief Theresa O'Brien said the Village needs this ladder truck to accommodate the growing population.

"Having a piece of equipment that allows us to better serve not just our residents, but also our growing industries is so important," she said.

Currently, the KFD must depend on other departments that own ladder trucks.

"To rely on other departments is sometimes a stretch if that equipment is already being used or if they don't have the personnel to spare," said O'Brien.

The truck is expected to arrive in Kronenwetter by the end of January.

Kronenwetter Police Department to expand its force in 2023

The Village police force will grow by two officers this year. The 2023 Village budget, approved by the Village Board, authorized the staff increase. The addition will bring the total number of full-time officers to ten. This will allow the department to provide much better service to Kronenwetter residents.

"The fact that we just started two brand new officers in the last quarter of 2022, plus the addition of two more new officers in April 2023 means our citizens will be seeing a lot of new faces out there," said Police Chief Terry McHugh.

In Aug. Isiah Konopacki was sworn in as a full-time police officer. He graduated from UW-Stevens Point with a BS in Conservation Law Enforcement. He earned his law enforcement certification from Mid-State Technical College. He served as a reserve deputy with the Wood County Sheriff's Office and as a security officer and dispatcher for the UW-Stevens Point Campus Police.

In Dec. Mason Dallman was sworn in as a full-time officer. Dallman's father, Ron, worked for the KPD for several years, but tragically passed away a year ago.

Dallman was a reserve officer for the Red Wing, MN Police Department. He recently completed the 720-hour WI police academy at Chippewa Valley Technical College. He has a BA in criminology from the University of River Falls.

McHugh hopes to have two new hires by Apr. 1, 2023. The new officers will allow the department to have six patrol officers, two patrol sergeants, one lieutenant, and a chief of police.

Officers Ben Shope and Aaron Seehafer were sworn in as sergeants on Jan. 9. They are the department's first sergeants.

"I'm looking forward to getting our new officers ingrained in the community," said McHugh. "At the same time, I'm very excited to train and mentor our new sergeants as they make the transition from officer to supervisor."

Dodge leads the charge

The KPD relies on Dodge Chargers for their marked patrol cars, although there is a Dodge Durango in the mix. The department switched from white patrol cars to a granite pearl coat a few years ago.

Another Dodge Charger will join the line-up in 2023.

Use the QR Code to learn more about KPD.

KPD history makers

For the first time ever, the KPD has sergeants among its ranks.

Sergeants Ben Shope and Aaron Seehafer were sworn in by Village Clerk Bobbi Jo Birk-LaBarge at the Jan. 9 Village Board meeting.

This history making event was met with a standing ovation from the board and audience.

Congratulations Sgt. Shope and Sgt. Seehafer. Your promotions are well deserved!

Officer Mason Dallman was sworn in on Dec. 8, 2022.

Officer Isiah Konopacki was sworn in on Aug. 22, 2022.

Kerswills win Deck the Yard

This year's Deck the Yard brought a three-peat victory for residents Matt and Hayley Kerswill and their home at 2341 Mystic Meadow Dr. Their home received 255 votes out of the 742 votes placed. The Kerswill's won in 2020, 2021, and now 2022. This year they added an inflatable character, lighted candy canes, and a sleigh on their roof with the grinch pulling lights off their neighbor's garage. Coming in second with 106 votes is longtime Village favorite Joe Krzyskiak and his home at 2288 Glendalen Rd. Thank you to all of our nominees for adding an extra sparkle to the Village this holiday season. We appreciate all the time and effort that went into your gorgeous displays. We hope you all enter next year! And thank you to all of you who voted. We nearly doubled the 400 votes of 2021's contest.
