Section 104(d) of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, as Amended

Section 509 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1987 (Public Law 100-242, approved February 5, 1988) amended section 104 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (the Act) by adding a new subsection (d).

The new subsection 104(d) of the Act provides that a grant under section 106 (CDBG Programs) may be made only if the grantee certifies that it is following a "residential anti-displacement and relocation plan."

Local governments, recipients under the New Mexico CDBG Program, must make this certification to the State. The requirement applies only to those recipients of CDBG funds awarded to the State by HUD after October 1, 1988.

ACCORDINGLY, the foregoing plan represents the effort of the County of Luna to comply with the requirements of Section 104(d) of the Act and is certified herewith:

DISPLACEMENT STRATEGY UTILIZED FOR CDBG HOUSING PROJECTS THROUGH PARTNERSHIPS WITH THE SOUTHWESTERN REGIONAL HOUSING AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION AND THE WESTERN REGIONAL HOUSING AUTHORITY

A. Steps to Minimize or Prevent Displacement

1. Plan, organize and stage the rehabilitation of assisted housing to allow tenants to remain during and after rehabilitation so as to provide the most convenient, safe and economically sound rehabilitation effort possible.
2. Assist in the identifying and locating of temporary relocation facilities in order to house families whose displacement will be of short duration, so that they can move back to their neighborhood after rehabilitation or new construction.
3. Evaluate housing codes and rehabilitation standards in reinvestment areas to prevent the placing of undue financial burdens on long-established owners or on tenants of multi-family buildings.
4. Counsel and advise homeowners and renters to understand the range of assistance that may be available to meet and protect their housing rights and interests.
5. In cooperation with neighborhood organizations, continuously review neighborhood development trends, identify displacement problems, and identify individuals facing displacement who need assistance.

- 3. Target Section 8 existing programs and certificates to households being displaced, and recruit area landlords to participate in the program.
- 4. Provide counseling and referral services to assist displacees in finding alternate housing in the neighborhood.
- 5. Work with area landlords and real estate brokers to locate vacancies or households facing displacement.

C. Actions to Otherwise Mitigate Adverse Effects of Displacement

- 1. Uses of public funds, such as CDBG, to pay moving costs and provide relocation payments, or, to the extent permissible by local or state law, require private developers to provide compensation to persons displaced by development activities.
