4. Comments and Announcements

A. Commissioners Comments:

Commissioner Duffy spoke on the Affordable Connectivity Program Week of Action. They are in partnership with onlineforall and are kicking off Affordable Connectivity Program (ACP) Week of Action from June 14, 2023 to June 22, 2023. Organizations and Individuals can sign up to join the ACP Week of Action from June 14 to June 22 at onlineforall.org. The ACP was created to get funding for eligible participants for internet service. The ACP Week of Action will bring together leaders to spread awareness about this program and help thousands of new households get enrolled. Participants will receive additional guidance and resources leading up to the ACP Week of Action and will be recognized for their participation. I signed up the County and said we would talk about this at our commissioners meeting to help spread the word.

Commissioners Kreiner stated that Angelia Tennies went to her conference and was awarded the Matylda Hudak Assessor Award in honor of this lady that was an assessor from Scranton and was one of the founding members of the Assessment Association. Angie has been an assessor for 31 years, 25 years as Chief Assessor as well as being the Director of Tax Claim for the past 10 years. She was honored for her dedication, commitment, and willingness to step up when needed.
