CUSTODY COMPLAINT

FORMS AND INSTRUCTIONS

WARNING

Custody is civil litigation and is a very serious matter. It is highly recommended that you hire an attorney to represent you in any custody action. If you choose not to hire an attorney, you may lose rights important to you. The court will expect you to follow the rules of procedure the same as though you had an attorney representing you. The information contained in this packet is not to be used as a substitute for professional legal advice. Most individuals seeking a medical remedy for a medical problem will consult a medical expert—a doctor. If you are seeking a legal remedy for a legal problem, we recommend that you consult a legal expert—a lawyer.

Disclaimer

Court staff is not able to give you legal advice or help you fill out/complete these forms. The information in this packet is not a substitute for professional legal advice. I. General Information

A. Introduction

These materials are intended to assist individuals involved in a custody action by providing general information and legal forms. IT IS HIGHLY RECOMMENDED THAT YOU HIRE AN ATTORNEY TO REPRESENT YOU IN ANY CUSTODY ACTION. The information contained in this packet is not to be used as a substitute for professional legal advice. Even if you do not hire an attorney to begin your custody action, you can change your mind and choose to hire an attorney at any time.

B. Legal Definitions

There are two forms of custody: Legal Custody and Physical Custody

1. Legal Custody is the right to make major decisions on behalf of the child, including, but not limited to, medical, religious and educational decisions. Legal custody can be shared or can be solely with one person.
2. Physical Custody is when a person has actual physical possession and control of a child.

There are different types of physical custody, which include:

- a. Partial Physical Custody: The right to assume physical custody of the child for less than the majority of the time.
 - b. Primary Physical Custody: The right to assume physical custody of the child for the majority of the time.
 - c. Shared Physical Custody: The right of more than one individual to assume physical custody of the child, each having significant periods of physical custodial time with the child.
 - d. Sole Physical Custody: The right of one individual to exclusive physical custody of the child.
 - e. Supervised Physical Custody: Custodial time during which an agency or an adult designated by the court or agreed upon by the parties monitors the interaction between the child and the individual with those rights.
3. In Loco Parentis: For all intents and purposes you are the parent of the child(ren). You have clothed them, fed them, and otherwise cared for them for longer than six (6) months without the consent of the parents.

Further information about custody law can be found in the Pennsylvania statutes (Purdon's) at Title 23 Pa.C.S.A., Domestic Relations, Sections 5321 to 5340. Please see the next section for information on accessing these laws.

C. Rules and Statutes

A copy of the McKean County Local Rules of Civil Procedure and the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure can be obtained from the law library located on the 2nd Floor of the Courthouse or on the County's website www.mckeancountypa.org. Select the "Court of Common Pleas" under "Departments" and from the menu on the right select "Rules and Statutes.” The Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure that apply to custody cases are Rules 1915.1 through 1915.25. Further, at the same location on the Court’s website as described above there is a link to “Purdon’s Pennsylvania Statutes” and “Pennsylvania Code.” Through either of these websites you can access the custody laws or any other laws that are referenced in this packet or on the forms. Look for the Title number first and then the Section number.

Here are some websites that provide basic information about the child custody process: www.palawhelp.org and www.aboutthechildrenblog.com. The Court DOES NOT endorse any of these websites or the information contained therein.

D. Basic Procedure

This packet contains forms and instructions on how to initiate a custody action. If a custody order already exists or if there are problems with enforcing the already existing order, then you should not use this packet but rather you should get one of the other packets from the Prothonotary and follow the instructions in those packets regarding your request to modify, relocate or enforce the custody order. There are separate packets for Modification of a Custody Order, Emergency Petition for Custody, Enforcing a Custody Order and Custody Relocation.

STOP!! Read the next paragraph carefully!

E. Service (providing a copy of the documents you are filing to all other parties)

Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure 1930.4 requires that Original Process (such as a Custody Complaint or Petition to Modify) must be properly served on (mailed or handed to) all other parties, or their attorney, if any. Please read this rule carefully and select the best method for service. Please file one of the Proof of Service documents (Forms 8, 9 or 10) with the Prothonotary’s Office once you have served the other parties. The instructions in section II, paragraph I will tell you how to properly serve the other side.

If you do not properly serve all other parties, your case may be delayed, or even dismissed.

F. Getting a Custody Order

You can start a custody action by yourself or through an attorney. Even if there is an agreement about custody, you still need to prepare and file a Custody Complaint (Form 6) if you want your custody agreement to be an Order of Court.

1. If You Have an Agreement

You can prepare a Confidential Information Form (Form 1), an Entry of Appearance (Form 2), proper cover sheets (Forms 3-5), the Notice (Form 6), Custody Complaint (Form 7), the Criminal/Abuse Verification (Form 8), the written agreement (Form 12), the Motion to Adopt an Agreement (Form 13), and the Sample Order to Adopt an Agreement (Form 14) and file them in the Prothonotary’s Office at the same time.

2. If You Do Not Have an Agreement

You must prepare a Confidential Information Form (Form 1, an Entry of Appearance (Form 2), proper cover sheets (Forms 3-5), Custody Complaint (Form 6), the Criminal Abuse Verification (Form 7) and file them in the Prothonotary's Office at the same time. After the court receives all of your properly filed documents, the case will be scheduled for Orientation. You must then properly serve a copy of the Complaint to the other party. You must prove that you properly served the other parties by completing a Proof of Service document (see Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure 1930.4(h) and Forms 9, 10 and 11).

G. Enforcing a Custody Order

If someone violates the provisions of a custody order, you can file a Petition for Civil Contempt along with a Notice. After the Court receives a completed Petition for Civil Contempt along with a Notice, then a date and time will be scheduled for a hearing before the Court. These documents must be properly served on (mailed or handed to) all parties and proper proof of service must be submitted to the Court. At the hearing, the Court will review the evidence, and if necessary, take testimony from any witnesses. If someone violates a custody order, then he/she can be subject to a fine, imprisonment or other remedies. There is a separate packet available for your use regarding enforcing a custody order.

H. Modifying a Custody Order

If a custody order already exists, but circumstances have changed, then you can file a Petition for Modification. There is a separate packet available for your use regarding modifying a custody order.

I. Relocating

If you are planning to change the residence of the child(ren) and this change will significantly impair the ability of a nonrelocating party to exercise custodial rights, you may need to file a Petition for Relocation along with a Proposed Revised Custody Schedule and a Counter-Affidavit Regarding Relocation. There is a separate packet available for your use regarding custody relocation.

II. Instructions

If you have not already done so, prior to beginning this Section, please detach the Forms at the end of this packet. Please note that the Forms at the end of the packet are in the same order as these instructions. You MUST use Forms 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 and EITHER Form 9, 10, or 11. APPENDIX TO ORDER

Certain rules of conduct apply to custody matters. These rules are binding on the parties. Breaching them could result in contempt of court or a modification of the custody order. In the event these general rules are different from any specific provision in the custody order, the order shall prevail.

RULE 1. The parties shall always consider the best interests of the children and act accordingly.

RULE 2. The provisions in the custody order are to be considered minimum requirements. The parties are free to expand the provisions by mutual agreement. However, no party can increase or decrease periods of custody without agreement.

RULE 3. The parties shall permit reasonable telephone contact with the children as set forth in Paragraph 8.

RULE 4. In the event of a serious illness or an accident requiring medical attention, the party having custody of the child shall immediately notify the other party and shall inform the other party as to the nature of the illness or injury. During such illness or injury either party shall have the right to visit the child as long as such visit does not interfere with the proper medical care of the child.

RULE 5. A party shall provide the other with an address and a phone number to that party's residence. In the event of a change in this information, the party shall notify the other within 72 hours. Further, a party shall provide an address and contact information in the event of an overnight stay at a location other than that party's residence.

RULE 6. Both parties shall have access to any school or medical records of the child.

RULE 7. Neither party should attempt to influence the children against the other party by making derogatory or uncomplimentary statements. The parties shall not argue or engage in heated discussions in the presence of the children.

RULE 8. Neither party shall question the children about the personal life of the other party, except to the extent necessary to insure the personal safety of the children. Children should not be used as spies; this is a harmful role for a child to fill.

RULE 9. If a party is unable to make a scheduled custody exchange, that party should give advance notice to the other party to avoid subjecting the children to unnecessary travel and the failure of expectations.

RULE 10. Predetermined schedules may encounter complications, and both parties should be flexible for the sake of the children. However, neither party may change the regular custody schedule without prior agreement of the other party.

RULE 11. A party or the person responsible for transporting the children must refrain from the use of alcohol and illicit drugs and must possess a valid driver's license with current operating privileges. Any party who arrives to pick up the children and has used alcohol excessively, is intoxicated, or does not possess a valid driver's license automatically forfeits that custody period. Any party that returns the children under the same conditions automatically forfeits the next scheduled period of custody. Further, a party, while the child is in his or her presence, shall refrain from imbibing alcoholic beverages in excess or using illicit drugs. Chronic violations of this rule may result in a modification or suspension of custody.

RULE 12. In the event of a proposed relocation, any party to this action shall comply with the provisions of 23 Pa.C.S.A. § 5337 relating to a change in residence.

RULE 13. The parties to this action should welcome their parenting duties, but may at times delegate these responsibilities to capable babysitters or others unless Right of First Refusal applies.

RULE 14. Child support and divorce issues are separate issues from child custody. Under no circumstances should a parent refuse contact between a child and a parent on the basis of a child support or divorce issue. Failure to follow this directive may result in contempt proceedings.

RULE 15. Clothing and personal belongings a child arrives with at the beginning of a period of custody are to return with the child at the end of that period of custody.

RULE 16. If either party feels the other party has violated these rules or the custody order, that party may petition the court as set forth in Pa.R.C.P. 1915.12.

EXHIBIT A

RELOCATION

Any party to this action shall comply with the provisions of 23 Pa.C.S. § 5337 relating to a proposed relocation. The child custody statute defines "relocation" as a parent proposing to change the residence of a child which significantly impairs the ability of a non-relocating parent to exercise custodial rights shall follow the procedures required by 23 Pa. C.S. § 5337 and Rule of Civil Procedure 1915.17 as set forth in this Exhibit B attached to the Custody Order. The following is a portion of the statute. Copies of the full statute are available at the Domestic Relations Office. As always, if you have any questions, you should seek the assistance of an attorney.

(a) Applicability.--This section applies to any proposed relocation.

(b) General rule.--No relocation shall occur unless:

- (1) every individual who has custody rights to the child consents to the proposed relocation; or
- (2) the court approves the proposed relocation.

(c) Notice.-

(1) The party proposing the relocation shall notify every other individual who has custody rights to the child.

(2) Notice, sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, shall be given no later than:

(i) the 60th day before the date of the proposed relocation; or

(ii) the tenth day after the date that the individual knows of the relocation, if:

(A) the individual did not know and could not reasonably have known of the relocation in sufficient time to comply with the 60- day notice; and

(B) it is not reasonably possible to delay the date of relocation so as to comply with the 60-day notice.

(3) Except as provided by section 5336 (relating to access to records and information), the following information, if available, must be included with the notice of the proposed relocation:

(i) The address of the intended new residence.

(ii) The mailing address, if not the same as the address of the intended new residence.

(iii) Names and ages of the individuals in the new residence, including individuals who intend to live in the new residence.

(iv) The home telephone number of the intended new residence, if available.

(v) The name of the new school district and school.

(vi) The date of the proposed relocation.

(vii) The reasons for the proposed relocation.

(viii) A proposal for a revised custody schedule.

(ix) Any other information which the party proposing the relocation deems appropriate.

(x) A counter-affidavit as provided under subsection (d)(1) which can be used to object to the proposed relocation and the modification of a custody order.

(xi) A warning to the nonrelocating party that if the nonrelocating party does not file with the court an objection to the proposed relocation within 30 days after receipt of the notice, that party shall be foreclosed from objecting to the relocation.

(4) If any of the information set forth in paragraph (3) is not known when the notice is sent but is later made known to the party proposing the relocation, then that party shall promptly inform every individual who received notice under this subsection.

(d) Objection to proposed relocation.-

(1) A party entitled to receive notice may file with the court an objection to the proposed relocation and seek a temporary or permanent order to prevent the relocation. The nonrelocating party shall have the opportunity to indicate whether he objects to relocation or not and whether he objects to modification of the custody order or not. If the party objects to either relocation or modification of the custody order, a hearing shall be held as provided in subsection (g)(1). The objection shall be made by completing and returning to the court a counter-affidavit, which shall be verified subject to penalties under 18 Pa.C.S. § 4904 (relating to unsworn falsification to authorities), in substantially the following form:

(2) An objection made under this subsection shall be filed with the court within 30 days of receipt of the proposed relocation notice and served on the other party by certified mail, return receipt requested.

(3) If notice of the proposed relocation has been properly given and no objection to the proposed relocation has been filed in court, then it shall be presumed that the nonrelocating party has consented to the proposed relocation.

(4) If a party who has been given proper notice does not file with the court an objection to the relocation within 30 days after receipt of the notice but later petitions the court for review of the custodial arrangements, the court shall not accept testimony challenging the relocation.

(e) Confirmation of relocation.--If no objection to the proposed relocation is filed under subsection (d), the party proposing the relocation shall file the following with the court prior to the relocation:

(1) an affidavit stating that the party provided notice to every individual entitled to notice, the time to file an objection to the proposed relocation has passed and no individual entitled to receive notice has filed an objection to the proposed relocation;

(2) Proof that proper notice was given in the form of a return receipt with the signature of the addressee and the full notice that was sent to the addressee.

(3) a petition to confirm the relocation and modify any existing custody order; and

(4) a proposed order containing the information set forth in subsection (c)(3).

Neither in the pleadings nor during proceedings or hearings under this chapter shall the court or hearing officer require disclosure of the address of a domestic violence program. Where the court concludes that the defendant poses a threat of continued danger to the plaintiff and where the plaintiff requests that his or her address, telephone number and information about whereabouts not be disclosed, the court shall enter an order directing that law enforcement agencies, human service agencies and school districts (both in which a plaintiff's child in custody of the plaintiff is or has been enrolled) shall not disclose the presence of the plaintiff or the child in the jurisdiction or district or furnish any address, telephone number or any other demographic information about the plaintiff and child except by further order of the court.

These records, including program applications, participants' actual addresses and waiver proceedings, shall be kept confidential and shall not be subject to the provisions of the act of June 21, 1957 (P.L. 390, No. 212),¹ referred to as the Right-to-Know Law, except that records may be released as specifically set forth in this chapter and to a district attorney to the extent necessary for the prosecution of conduct as set forth in section 6711 (relating to penalties).

(f) Enforcement.--In awarding custody, the court shall specify the terms and conditions of the award in sufficient detail to enable a party to enforce the court order through law enforcement authorities.
