

McKean County

EMERGENCY PETITION FOR CUSTODY

FORMS AND INSTRUCTIONS

WARNING

Custody is civil litigation and is a very serious matter. It is highly recommended that you hire an attorney to represent you in any custody action. If you choose not to hire an attorney, you may lose rights important to you. The court will expect you to follow the rules of procedure the same as though you had an attorney representing you. The information contained in this packet is not to be used as a substitute for professional legal advice. Most individuals seeking a medical remedy for a medical problem will consult a medical expert—a doctor. If you are seeking a legal remedy for a legal problem, we recommend that you consult a legal expert—a lawyer.

Disclaimer

Court staff is not able to give you legal advice or help you fill out/complete these forms. The information in this packet is not a substitute for professional legal advice. I. General Information

EMERGENCY RELIEF WILL ONLY BE AWARDED IF THERE IS A TRUE EMERGENCY. A true emergency is a risk that the other parent will harm or abuse the child or has abandoned the child. If you cannot prove abandonment or actual/imminent mistreatment or abuse of a child, then you should not file an Emergency Petition for Custody. If you file an emergency petition without proper justification, or for harassment, you may be required to pay costs and/or counsel fees of the other party.

IF THERE IS A THREAT OF IMMEDIATE HARM TO THE CHILD, YOU MAY WANT TO FILE FOR A PROTECTION FROM ABUSE (PFA) ORDER [contact Northwestern Legal Services, 814-362-6596] OR YOU MAY WANT TO CONTACT MCKEAN COUNTY COUNTY CHILDREN & YOUTH SERVICES (CYS) [CYS is located at 17155 Route 6, Smethport, 814-887-3350].

A. Introduction

These materials are intended to assist individuals involved in a custody action by providing general information and legal forms. IT IS HIGHLY RECOMMENDED THAT YOU HIRE AN ATTORNEY TO REPRESENT YOU IN ANY CUSTODY ACTION. The information contained in this packet is not to be used as a substitute for professional legal advice. Even if you do not hire an attorney to begin your custody action, you can change your mind and choose to hire an attorney at any time.

Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure 1930.4 requires that Original Process (such as a Custody Complaint or Petition to Modify) must be properly served on (mailed or handed to) all other parties, or their attorney, if any. Please read this rule carefully and select the best method for service. Please file one of the Proof of Service documents with the Prothonotary's Office once you have served the other parties.

If you do not properly serve all other parties, your case may be delayed, or even dismissed.

During the course of a proceeding under this chapter, the court or hearing officer may consider whether the plaintiff or plaintiff's family is endangered by disclosure of the permanent or temporary address of the plaintiff or minor children. Neither in the pleadings nor during proceedings or hearings under this chapter shall the court or hearing officer require disclosure of the address of a domestic violence program. Where the court concludes that the defendant poses a threat of continued danger to the plaintiff and where the plaintiff requests that his or her address, telephone number and information about whereabouts not be disclosed, the court shall enter an order directing that law enforcement agencies, human service agencies and school districts (both in which a plaintiff's child in custody of the plaintiff is or has been enrolled) shall not disclose the presence of the plaintiff or the child in the jurisdiction or district or furnish any address, telephone number or any other demographic information about the plaintiff and child except by further order of the court.

23 Pa.C.S. § 6703

(a) Establishment.--The Office of Victim Advocate shall establish a program to be known as the Address Confidentiality Program. Upon application and certification, persons eligible under section 6704 (relating to persons eligible to apply) shall receive a confidential substitute address provided by the Office of Victim Advocate.

(b) Administration.--The Office of Victim Advocate shall forward all first class, registered and certified mail at no expense to a program participant within three business days. The Office of Victim Advocate may arrange to receive and forward other classes or kinds of mail at the program participant's expense.

(c) Notice.--Upon certification, the Office of Victim Advocate shall provide notice of participation and the program participant's substitute address to appropriate officials involved in an ongoing civil or criminal case in which a program participant is a victim, witness, plaintiff or defendant.

(d) Records.--All records relating to applicants and program participants are the property of the Office of Victim Advocate. These records, including program applications, participants' actual addresses and waiver proceedings, shall be kept confidential and shall not be subject to the provisions of the act of June 21, 1957 (P.L. 390, No. 212),¹ referred to as the Right-to-Know Law, except that records may be released as specifically set forth in this chapter and to a district attorney to the extent necessary for the prosecution of conduct as set forth in section 6711 (relating to penalties).

18 Pa.C.S. § 4904

(a) In general.--A person commits a misdemeanor of the second degree if, with intent to mislead a public servant in performing his official function, he:

- (1) makes any written false statement which he does not believe to be true;
- (2) submits or invites reliance on any writing which he knows to be forged, altered or otherwise lacking in authenticity; or
- (3) submits or invites reliance on any sample, specimen, map, boundary mark, or other object which he knows to be false.

(b) Statements “under penalty”.--A person commits a misdemeanor of the third degree if he makes a written false statement which he does not believe to be true, on or pursuant to a form bearing notice, authorized by law, to the effect that false statements made therein are punishable.

(c) Perjury provisions applicable.--Section 4902(c) through (f) of this title (relating to perjury) applies to this section.

(d) Penalty.--In addition to any other penalty that may be imposed, a person convicted under this section shall be sentenced to pay a fine of at least $1,000.

Rule 1915.4. Prompt Disposition of Custody Cases

(a) Initial Contact With the Court. Depending upon the procedure in the judicial district, the parties' initial in-person contact with the court (including, but not limited to a conference with a conference officer pursuant to Rule 1915.4-2, a conference with a judge, conciliation, mediation and/or class/seminar) shall be scheduled to occur not later than 45 days from the filing of a complaint or petition.

(b) Listing Trials Before the Court. Depending upon the procedure in the judicial district, within 180 days of the filing of the complaint either the court shall automatically enter an order scheduling a trial before a judge or a party shall file a praecipe, motion or request for trial, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision. If it is not the practice of the court to automatically schedule trials and neither party files a praecipe, motion or request for trial within 180 days of filing of the pleading, the court shall, sua sponte or on motion of a party, dismiss the matter unless a party has been granted an extension for good cause shown, or the court finds that dismissal is not in the best interests of the child. The extension shall not exceed 60 days beyond the 180 day limit. A further reasonable extension may be granted by the court upon agreement of the parties or when the court finds, on the record, compelling circumstances for a further reasonable extension. If an extension is granted and, thereafter, neither party files a praecipe, motion or request for trial within the time period allowed by the extension, the court shall, sua sponte or on the motion of a party, dismiss the matter unless the court finds that dismissal is not in the best interests of the child. A motion to dismiss, pursuant to this rule, shall be filed and served upon the opposing party. The opposing party shall have 20 days from the date of service to file an objection. If no objection is filed, the court shall dismiss the case. Prior to a sua sponte dismissal, the court shall notify the parties of an intent to dismiss the case unless an objection is filed within 20 days of the date of the notice.

(c) Trial. Trials before a judge shall commence within 90 days of the date the scheduling order is entered. Trials and hearings shall be scheduled to be heard on consecutive days whenever possible but, if not on consecutive days, then the trial or hearing shall be concluded not later than 45 days from commencement.

(d) Prompt Decisions. The judge's decision shall be entered and filed within 15 days of the date upon which the trial is concluded unless, within that time, the court extends the date for such decision by order entered of record showing good cause for the extension. In no event shall an extension delay the entry of the court's decision more than 45 days after the conclusion of trial.

(e) Emergency or Special Relief. Nothing in this rule shall preclude a party from seeking, nor a court from ordering, emergency or interim special relief at any time after the commencement of the action.
