IMPROVING MODERN POLICE AND COMMUNITY TRUST

Contact Us For More Information

Our committee continuously works to develop a positive and caring relationship between the community and law enforcement. Opportunities for dialogue and action involving police and residents will lead to better relationships, accountability, and a safer community.

ABOUT US

Recent events in our country have opened the door to a national dialogue on race relations and law enforcement.

Who is Involved?

I.M.P.A.C.T. is comprised of a diverse group of individuals from the local community including faith-based, educational individuals, business community, government officials, and law enforcement.

Improving Relations

I.M.P.A.C.T. offers a means for building trust and strengthening the relationships and partnerships between law enforcement and the community, in order to improve the overall quality of life in Montgomery County.

Our Goals

In an effort to begin this important dialogue at the local level, the Montgomery County Sheriff's Office started a new initiative called Improving Modern Police And Community Trust (I.M.P.A.C.T.).

The committee meets bi-monthly to openly discuss issues and ways to increase the trust between police and the community.

Through continuous, open, and productive dialogue between Police and the Community the goal of I.M.P.A.C.T. is to:

- Foster trust and respect for law enforcement
- Encourage community involvement and support
- Identify community-based solutions to problems associated with implicit bias

"Police, at all times, should maintain a relationship with the public that gives reality to the historic tradition that the police are the public and the public are the police; the police being only members of the public who are paid to give full-time attention to duties which are incumbent on every citizen in the interest of community, welfare, and existence,"
