7. PUBLIC COMMENT
Bill Urbanski, 2367 Sherwood Road, provided the Council with a folder that had copies of letters from concerned Mounds View residents. He spoke to the Council regarding the INH development noting he was opposed. He did not support the City having a gun shop and shooting range in a residential neighborhood and less than one-half mile from Edgewood Middle School. He encouraged the Council to consider the unintended consequences of having a gun range at this location. He commented on the draft preliminary site plan and understood that TIF was being proposed for the INH development. He discussed how an economic downturn could impact property taxes in Mounds View and stated he did not want to see a gun club constructed with no market rate apartments. He commented on the Arden Hills Rice Creek Commons development and recommended Phase I of the INH development include market rate apartments. He encouraged the Council to review the letters within his handout and thanked the Council for their time.

Kenneth Glidden, 5240 Edgewood Drive, stated he lived six houses down from the Crossroad Pointe site. He explained this was the third meeting he has attended and noted he has concerns with why this development was being pursued. He asked why the Council was considering a gun club as part of this development. He indicated this was a prime piece of real estate that should stand on its own merit. He stated he was bothered by how other communities viewed Mounds View but noted he was proud to live in this City. He encouraged the Council to work to improve the image of the City. He stated he was troubled by the fact the City Council was pursuing a development that could cast the City in a bad light. He recommended the City Council wait to develop this site until another option came along. He anticipated this property would become more desirable after TCAAP begins to develop.
